I was held by the Russians in Auschwitz; this is what I saw

May 4, 2008 on 11:19 pm | Friedrich Braun | Revisionism | | Email This Post | Print this Post

Friedrich Stelzel of Munich claims to have been a German POW incarcerated by the Russians at Auschwitz immediately after WWII. At that time he was able to communicate with Polish prisoners that were still being held at the camp. He questioned them about the alleged gas chambers. They apparently told him they had never heard of such a thing. His letter to Irving is on his website which can be found at the following link:

Letter.

He also mentions that prisoners that had served their time were released by the Germans.

He provides his present address in Munich. One wonders when the thought police will get after him.

His letter is in German. I will provide a translation for non German speakers on this forum in a few days.

Unfortunately I belong to those - according to your definition- unreasonable human beings who do not go so far as to deny the Holocaust, but nevertheless dispute it.

I was, that is to say, in Soviet captivity at Auschwitz in the summer of 1945 and know therefore that at that time there did not exist any gas chambers to gas human beings. I also know that it was not an extermination camp as you would call it. Have you ever been to Auschwitz?

In my search for the gas chambers I came across a tiled 20 meter swimming pool in the prisoner area complete with diving board and chromed ladders for entering and leaving the pool. I asked myself whether the prisoners were allowed to go swimming prior to being gassed.

One day I met two Polish Kapos(head overseers) who were living at the camp since the time of the war. During the course of our conversation I asked them what the living conditions were like in the camp and about the gas chambers. To get right to the point they knew nothing about any gas chambers. The living conditions were bearable. Those who worked received camp scrip (camp money). For that they could buy additional nourishment or tobacco products or pay for a visit to the camp brothel. Prisoners who served their time were released.

It should also provide food for thought that Eli Wiesel preferred to evacuate with the Germans to the West instead of letting himself be liberated by the Red Army.

Incidentally, in numismatic circles Auschwitz scrip is still traded today.

1. Sounds good to me. There have been other reports that there were no gas chambers at Auschwitz and the folks that died died at the end of the war when there wasn't enough food or they died from typhus. Not only that, the 6 million figure has been scaled done to 1 million or less. And that throughout the whole of occupied Europe and Germany.

2. Explain this then

3. I'll explain it - propaganda to make ethnic cleansing of Palestinians justifiable because the jews have suffered so badly.

The red cross kept extensive records, as did the germans. Famous pictures of mounds of dead prisoners have been proven by record to be those of typhus victims (ie the plague) that swept through many camps.

That discussion and investigation of the holocaust evidence is a crime in Germany speaks VOLUMES - the truth doesn't need laws to protect it - so why is there one to prevent people from seeking it?

5. Stelzel should be arrested immediately for denying the memory of the dead. Furthermore he should be sentenced to prison for his crime of Truthfulness! There are times for truth and there are times for silence. Let self-haters learn to hold their tongues. . . while the goyim are becoming fully apprized of the hard lessons gleaned from dissent.

6. The only gassing that took place was to eliminate parasites and the like...(head lice, etc.)

7. William, you wouldn't happen to be getting "reparations" now, would you?

8. More lies are exposed.. Whatever will the perpetual victim class do now?

Their "holocaust credit" is a well they can only return to so many times before coming up empty.

Guess they need a new genocide to crow about, huh?

10. Let's see a transparent, international forensic study using modern methods to fully account for the number of deceased in the "death" camps. Certainly every Zionist would welcome such an accounting, would they not? Unless the numbers have been fantastically inflated to somehow buy sympathy for Israel.

11. Ooh, you can't say any of that!

There are plenty of spare cells next to Zundel's, Sylvia Stolz and Germar Rudolf's for 'deniers' who start to indulge in blasphemy.

12. I just watched that video from PBS. Very interesting all those deaths from Typhoid.

Billy, did you even watch the video from PBS? The whole thing was about the prisoners dieing from typhoid. The only scene with the gas chambers was a shower room.

And the only most telltale sign that the video is incorrect, it still says Auschwitz lost 4 million people. But then again, why change false history, if it's old.

I'm pretty sure the IRC (International Red Cross) only recorded ~120,000 dead, while the plaque at Auschwitz says 1 million.

At any rate, the point of Friedrich Stelzel's story is that the actual history is not what we are told, and the point of PBS's video is that it wasn't a Jewish Holocaust, it was an international tragedy...

The Plague can be a real bitch... That's why it's called 'The Plague'.

Like the other poster said, truth needs no law to protect it. Truth is open and happy to debate facts. Truth is only reached when the information is available.

13. The gas chambers that are currently at Auschwitz were built AFTER the war to help enshrine the HolocaustTM into everyone's mind, which in turn helped with the theft of Palestine by the Zionists.

As for the 4 million that were supposed that have died there, that number has been dropped and now it stands at 1.5 million, yet the HolocaustTM

Industry still sells the magical Kabbalah number of six million, the same number the Zionists tried to implant in people's brains after World War One.

As for countries that toss people in prison for asking questions about the HolocaustTM, why?

Why is it a sin and against the law in some nations to ask questions about the HolocaustTM ?

If the hate crime laws that are being bandied about in the US Congress ever become law, then look for US citizens to be tossed in prison for asking simple questions about the HolocaustTM.
