IHH head says Zionists brazenly lie. He confirms Jews threw corpses into sea

Publication time: 5 June 2010, 13:14

Bulent Yildirim, head of the Turkish Foundation for Human Rights and Freedoms and Humanitarian Relief (IHH), promised to continue to send ships to the Gaza Strip until lifting of the siege, despite the fact that the Jews staged a bloody massacre on the Mavi Marmara ferry.

He confirmed that the Jews threw the bodies of killed activists into sea. It is to be mentioned that, according to activists of the humanitarian mission, the bodies of at least 10 people killed by Jews were thrown into the sea and drowned, and the Jews declared them missing.

Yildirim has also confirmed that the activists of the humanitarian mission were forced to use sticks, iron rods and other items found on the ship, to defend themselves against the Jewish killers, which resulted in defeating numerous "marine special forces" of Zionists and seizing some of their weapons.

He stressed that many people, on his place, would have used sized weapons without hesitation. But activists of the flotilla threw them into the water.

Zionist militants also opened fire on a photographer, while he was filming the attack. And then declared that they were forced to kill him as a "militant", although, in fact, he was unarmed and did not resist.

Meanwhile, the Turkish president Abdullah Gul confirmed on Friday that the "Israel's" attack on the ships of the Freedom Flotilla caused irreparable damage to Turkish-Jewish relations, and that they are "beyond repair". He also emphasized that relations "will never be as they were in the past".

In an open statement on TV, Mr Gul, said that "Israeli" attack is "not a
