Merry Chemtrail Christmas

Southern California Christmas morning sky as the coastal fog lifts - Photo by Zen

by Zen Gardner

Sure enough. As signaled yesterday, after a night and morning of heavy spraying, the coastal fog lifted to reveal a special Christmas treat--another suffocating morning of chemtrails to suck in while families go outside to 'enjoy the day'.

In the picture above, the coastal fog is the almost blurry somewhat darker smears at the top. The blue is starting to appear and you can see a chemtrail tanker working diligently to "fill in the gap" as they always do. The center of the page are all chemtrails. That may not seem like it to some, but for those of us who've been studying these for a long time, we can tell.

The main trail across the middle has the tell-tale vertical ribbing, as does the one below it. As you go further down the picture you'll see older chemtrails that were laid out at sea that come in eventually as almost full cloud cover on some days. Their other strategy is using short and long dashes that grow wispy as they spread and blow inland and then they "thicken to desired consistency".

I Know Them Because I React To Them

I hacked my way through most of the night and woke up barely able to breathe, so I knew they'd been spraying heavily. I can tell. Unfortunately I am particularly sensitive to these things and have now developed what the doctor called a "sort of pre-asthma". I know, sounds like a new designer disease. Well, it is--designed by the damned black-ops covert rulers who've promoted this deadly program for over a decade.

I get many of the symptoms you'll read about--sore throat, cough and tightness in the chest, heart palpitations, and runny nose and eyes often. I try to stay inside on bad chemtrail days and we keep the windows shut and have two good air filters running fulltime, but I don't know if they can catch the tiny metallic salt particles or especially these demonic nano-particles. I hope so.

I take a lot of supplements, including super greens, especially added chlorella tablets, as well as an ionized clay to try to keep detoxed. I also use colloidal silver periodically. If anyone has found other helpful foods and additives I'd appreciate your posting them.

Geoengineering for Global Warming My Foot!

They spray above the natural clouds, they spray above the fog, they spray above the rain clouds. They spray way out at sea so it looks like a weather front coming in, and as it arrives they fill in the gaps. The chemtrails are sometimes mixed in with real clouds, so sceptics try to dismiss them for that reason. They also seem to attract the formation of vapor clouds so they sometimes 'fluff out' after the initial drop and aren't as distinct.

But it's always on and around population centers.

I travel quite a bit by car and I track these as I go. When crossing large open areas we can always tell where the next city is--the chemtrails were being sprayed there. Try looking for yourself. You'll see what I'm talking about. It's wicked.

Learn to Identify Them

It's obvious to those who've watched this program in action. You can identify chem 'splatter clouds', the ones that sometimes stay rounded but you'll see the wiry composition, while others have spiky edges much like a dendrite. Then there's the fake cirrus clouds that have swooping thin lines and are bent weirdly by the wind. And the frequent just plain aerosol trails of thin and thick lines that spread out like ammonia on the surface of a bucket of water--always with the lower bubbly line and the upper more straight edge and some strange cocktail in the middle from where they all mix.

And as I said, the chemtrails are sometimes mixed in with or attract the formation of real clouds, so don't be too dogmatic when trying to point them out to others. It's not always clear cut, but most days it is. Like many of you, I've watched beautiful natural blue skies (although all skies now have a whiter hue due to years of spraying) turned completely white after a few hours of spraying. They start off slow usually and then after a few fake "cloud banks" are established, they keep building on those and then start closing in the gaps of blue.

Heaven forbid all that nasty sunshine get through and cause more global warming....what BS. That's not the reason. And you can be sure they have PLENTY of uses they're implementing with this horrific program.

I've Had Enough

It's disgusting. And I'm pissed, like many of you. We need to find a way to network our voices on this issue and give that chemistry a chance to formulate some effective actions.

I wrote the EPA and the drivel I got back, months later, I'll share in another post. You'll laugh at how they treat us like idiots with their disinfo, but it's telling and also has the literal stamp of the main agencies promoting this program--at least a few we can know are complicit. The weather channel and other weather outlets didn't even answer my requests--probably ashamed of their compromised complicity. Not really, just gagged. Apparently all weather forecasts have to be cleared through a central 'agency' run by Raytheon. No wonder.

I like what Rosalind Peterson of CaliforniaSkyWatch.com says about calling them "persistent contrails" in certain venues, since "chemtrail" has been so successfully stigmatized by the mainstream media. Amongst the truth community though, chemtrails are what they are and need no toning down. But I believe if we want to help others wake up to this perfidy there are times to wisely use that terminology so their programmed 'screens' don't go up where they can't hear a word we're saying.

Post Your Pictures

BeforeItsNews is hoping to be hosting a special place to upload daily chemtrail pictures soon that will link to related information. With it that takes and sends photos now this could be powerful. Get others you know to participate when that goes up so we can get as broad a daily snapshot of their spraying activities as we cannot only across the US but from all over the world. Perhaps a centralized collection like that will trigger others to react to the enormity of this man-made catastrophe and somehow we can spare the health of our children. Or at least wake people up.

Because at this rate, this wicked aerosol program combined with poisoned food and water, altered food and animal organisms, and the vaccine program, our children don't have a chance.

P.S. Now an afternoon update from SoCal coast: Pic by Zen

Chemtrails above a natural (more or less) cloud front over the ocean in SoCal on Christmas.

Are they trying to bring more inordinate rain? Or just the usual sun block and chemicals?

our skies here in sunny old melbourne suffered the same fate. no photo's but I know what i am looking at, and it looks exactly the same.

I looked up words like "weather modification" which led me to the latest acceptable terminology which is "weather mitigation"...no secrets there! After you do some research, you will find out that it is a free for all in the skies. Zillions of weather modification companies offer rain, fog or whatever on demand! Just look up "weather modification companies" and you will find weather modification programs in progress at this very moment all over the world! City governments and private individuals can employ these companies for a fee. The other "secret" campaigns in progress for "experimentation" and "security" may be harder to find out. It seems the sky is like the wild west...PS, I have photos of Europe from 2004 with astounding lines and rainbows in the sky...such a curiosity...

Synergistic Effect - Definition

It is not uncommon for the effect of two chemicals on an organism to be greater than the effect of each chemical individually, or the sum of the individual effects. The presence of one chemical enhances the effects of the second. This is called a synergistic effect or synergy, and the chemicals are sometimes described as showing synergism.

"The geo-engineering of our skies poisons our breathing air with barium, aluminum, strontium, cadmium, chromium, thorium, zirconium, titanium, magnesium, potassium, sodium, arsenic, iron, boron, manganese, copper, zinc, nickel, ethylene dibromide, polymer fibers, mycoplasma and biotoxins with each of these chemical releases."

Nevada Skywatch...bravo!!

Posted by Anonymous on Sunday, December 26, 2010 2:50

James again. Now that we know what the definition for, 'Synergistic Effect' is, consider that we already have numerous chemicals in our bodies already. Now at any given time, unless we are able to stop this spraying, they may say to go ahead and spray the chemicals, those that will activate all of the chemicals already in the systems of every person on planet earth, all of which combined may start off that worldwide pandemic that they so much wanted to happen last year with their H 1 N 1 everybody must get the vaccine. Thanks to the Internet and word of mouth many thousands did not bend to the out right order to get the vaccine. That may be the only way that we will be able to get this stopped by causing an uproar loud enough that even those that are just wanting to live their lives away from the crazies cannot help but take notice and that means they will have to react to what is going on, or again just plug their heads into the dirt beneath their feet. A loud enough noise and just like last year, that thing called our president had to take notice.

Here is one way to get the attention of those that don't want to hear what we have to say. wanted to bring to peoples attention the number of military and civilians being killed in Iraq since the MSM was not doing the job we should expect for them to be doing. He made posters large enough to be seen by motorists driving on the freeways. They were is size from some that he puts on trees along the freeways, to those that he hung over the sides of the overpasses that would hang down in front of on coming traffic. Of course, they did not interfere with the safety of those on the freeways. Getting that done across the entire nation would have the effect of telling millions to 'look up, see what they are doing to out skies'.

That is a good idea and would reach millions. Also, that would need someone that could get those people across the country that would do it, meaning you have to know a few more people then I do. I am the only one here that talks about this stuff and those I have told, well, they are the jackasses that are putting their heads into the dirt. We don't have any sand around here.

I am sick/tired of looking up at the Tulsa skies and seeing this garbage. What can we do??? I am passing out CD's called "What are they spraying on us?"

I feel for you Zen. We live in Miami and they are killing us with the chemtrails (not to mention the effects of the Gulf Tilt Illness from the ..... from the Gulf)

My wife reacts terribly to both.

After a LOT of research we found many things that work wonders:

Reishi Mushroom (best can be found at reishiessence.com)

Olive Leaf Extract
(<http://www.seagateproducts.com/olive-leaf-extract.html>)

and

Colon Cleansing for Detox using Oxypowder

Trying to eat only organic and limiting the crap you put in your body (not to mention NEVER taking "medicine" is the key to keeping yourself healthy!

God bless and keep fighting the good fight!

New or Recent Info:
Important Breakthroughs in eliminating Chemtrails! Please Read

April 2005: The massive appearance of Sylphs in 2004 (see next paragraph below- August 2004) and their neutralization/transmutation of chemtrails into non-toxic elements was a huge leap forward in neutralizing the diabolical chemtrail genocide aerosol spraying operation, but apparently we have progressed to yet another level. People are now reporting the ability to clear the skies of chemtrails by use of the mind alone to obtain assistance from unseen helpers (Sylphs and others) and do the job for you based on your focused intention. It's really amazing to see this development. I first posted an article in 2002 by Rich Work about using the mind and the the power of prayer to disperse chemtrails, and now we see this ability coming into reality with many people. Merry Christmas from another Angeleno, Zen. I have been following this for quite awhile - I remember the checkerboard sky over the South Bay the day Win 98 was released. A good viewing spot on a clear day is Mt. San Gorgonio. Might need crampons and a parka now, but it is worth the climb. It was interesting to be at the peak and look down on the planes as they sprayed.

Hello,
Outstanding information on this site.
Many thanks to you and to Jeff Rense for pointing you folks out.

I'm in rural North Idaho and there are more than enough chemtrails here to satisfy any genocidal mad scientist's global depopulation schemes. I've noticed some unusual chemtrail-related phenomenon that I was hoping someone here might perhaps generalize upon.

On heavy spraying days, while wearing standard UV lenses, I've noticed red and purple rings around the perimeter of the Sun. Normally, I wouldn't attempt to look directly at the Sun, even while wearing a good pair of sunglasses. I've only witnessed this atmospheric phenomenon a handful of times, and only on heavy spraying days.

I've spent some time around many different laboratory chemicals, and I'm thinking these rings originate with the barium, arsenic, and possibly cadmium compounds. Three of the eight heavy metals which are known to be exceptionally toxic. I've forgotten some of the infrared color signatures associated with these elements and compounds thereof.

Any theories with you folks here? Thanks again.
A.J.

Two vital suppliments to use:

Malic Acid - Usually used in the form of Magnesium Malate, since it has such a strong affinity for transporting it to the brain where it is needed most, but it is also available as Malic Acid. This fruit-based alpha-hydroxy acid is especially effective for chelating alkaline metals out of the body. It is most effective against ALUMINUM. Best of all it penetrates the blood/brain barrier and chelates these metals out of the brain.

The body also produces Malic Acid, but not in the quantities required to deal with what the NWO is spewing out at us. I take 2 gms a day.

EDTA - Oral capsules. The best heavy metal ion chelator out there. Given in the hospital in IV form for acute heavy metal toxicity. I take 1250 mgs a day.

Two small downsides. Molecule is too large to effectively penetrate the blood/brain barrier. Also, it is so effective the user is required to take vital mineral supplements to make up for any that EDTA has chelated out of the body.

I take EDTA in the morning and minerals in the afternoon.

No more brain fog for years. no more nerve problems and headaches. On heavy chemtrail spraying campaigns I may up the dosage and stick my middle finger at the sky.

As for the chemtrail induced heart palpitations or arrhythmia:

In addition to effectively addressing the brain fog and neuropathy with EDTA and Malic Acid, I overcame the arrhythmias I had during work outs. I take two items that have been highly effective in alleviating them:

Magnesium Malate or any form of Mg that is not Magnesium Oxide. Mg Oxide is too oxidized to be effectively metabolized by the body - but it is much cheaper then other chelated forms of Mg.

Taurine - This vital amino acid when used with Mg has the uncanny ability to get rid of about 90% of my arrhythmia problems. Based on research. Published studies from well-known outfits to all this are on the internet.

Same type of Dirty Chemtrails here in Calonge (Spain) we live near Coast and forest they Spray us almost every day or night I recognize them easy they fly lower and make almost no sound see proof here:

Here in San Jose CA recently the constituents of the spraying have changed, as my symptoms have changed. Chlorella has been effective, but I will increase my Iodine intake, as it also chelates HMs. Turkish wild oregano oil kills everything, very good, find the highest content of carvacrol, the active. Taurine is good, quercetin/bromelain combos reduce allergic reactions.

Connecticut same here. 12/24 spraying all day drift looks to be toward New York City most of the time. I have logged for the last year everyday they have sprayed. They do have a pattern. They spray a day or so before it is going to rain, sleet, snow etc... Always without exception. Now I personally have never had nose bleeds in my entire life. As of this year I started having them. I have them believe it or not only the day after they have sprayed. This year 2010 has been a busy spraying season for them here. Is this just a coincidence???? Don't think so. I have always had perfect health and never even a cold. It seems very odd that I only get nose bleeds the day after they spray. So I did some research. I will let you decide if I'm correct or not. I know where the Northeast flight originate( JFK ) and who they are (Evergreen International) and who is fronting them. That one could get me in trouble so you do the research. The truth is out there. Get the word out. They are spraying Aluminum and Barium that I do know since I have been collecting local soil and air samples this year and the result show steady increase in these chemicals. Oh and earlier this last month the U.N. called for a halt on chem spraying thur out the world, even though we are told they are not spraying.....hmmm....an added note. After seeing s510 approved I personally have come to some conclusions. 1. I do not believe the cover story that they spray to dissipate a possible EMP blast so that affects will not reach ground level and destroy our infrastructure. 2. Alum and barium both have ill affects on the immune system. 3. After seeing all the seed vaults (14) built around the world and stocked and paid for by the likes of the Gates,Rockefeller,Monsanto etc ..ie.. elites ..and many years of research it seems to me the logical reason for the spraying is to: a. slowly destroy the ability of our immune systems to combat disease and b. retard our mental development (quote from John D Rockefeller "I don't want a nation of thinkers, I want a nation of workers.") to slowly destroy all food bearing plant life ie..(intolerance to the chemicals sprayed) thus allowing Monsanto to pop up on q to introduce new GMO seeds capable of growing and producing in this kind of toxic soil.

I noticed this summer while the corexit spraying was at it's highest, the Portland OR area was clear of trails. Once the gusher was plugged the trails started to come back.

Great ideas--keep percolating. Main thing    is to stay conscious and right actions will follow.

I take pictures all the time, when possible near people to spark them to ask what I'm taking a picture of...bingo. 4 out of 5 listen. I stop people and point them out, even pulling people out of stores on an outrageous day to see them. I also have a hat my wife got me for my birthday that says "Those Aren't Contrails" in big letters.

CaliforniaSkyWatch has a flyer you can download as well.

I work my mailing list hard on this too, till it's matter of fact to them and they start talking with others. When they start to sense the enormity of it and it gets into other issues, try using the food adulteration issue first, as most agree on that. And if the PTBS would do that, then...

We gotta do what we can. Look for the BIN chemtrail feature, it's in the works now.

Closeted Atheist`s, Agnostics, Non-believers, and Non -religious American taxpayers are nauseated by having myths of gods and other supernatural beliefs shoved down their throats. There are countless religious symbols displayed everywhere, and they are impossible to avoid or turn off. Religious ideas are protected by the constitution, but they should be kept off limits to over 50 million free thinking Americans.

I think a good way to expose this is to have a money bomb to get the funds to hire a plane and an independent lab and other experts and do a realtime internet feed of the whole process from captured samples to the lab and to the chemical experts.
