Lt. Gen. Dhafi Khalfan Tamim, Dubai's police chief, stated during a press conference on Sunday that the team which carried out the killing of Mahmud al-Mabhouh in a room at the Al-Bostan, Rotana hotel in Dubai on January 20 consisted of six British passport holders, three Irish passport holders including the woman, and the holders of each a German and a French passport.

"This is a list of all the wanted suspects. The list will be given to the press, newspaper and the Interpol", said Khalfan. Dubai will soon issue arrest warrants for 11 Europeans suspected in the killing of senior Hamas official Mahmoud Al-Mabhouh, but the police chief said on Monday that he was still not ruling out Israeli involvement.

Khalfan said that two Palestinians suspected of providing logistical support in Mabhouh's murder were being held by police. Al Arabiya television said that the pair had been handed over by Jordan.

Khalfan said that the 11 suspects were believed to have rented a room across the corridor from al-Mabhouh around the time of the murder, and left Dubai shortly after. Al-Mabhouh entered the United Arab Emirates a day before his death using a passport that did not bear his family name.

Khalfan described the assassination of Al-Mabhouh, who was unarmed and alone, "by more than a dozen people" as a cowardly act and not an act of heroism. In an apparent reference to the possibility of state involvement in the assassination of Mabhouh, Khalfan said "if leaders of some countries export orders to their intelligence and security services to commit murders in another country, this is repugnant and unacceptable."

I hope they catch these murderers. I'm especially interested in finding out which country sent them to do their dirty business. Whichever one it was should be immediately boycotted and removed from all international agencies and expelled from the UN. All of the countries that
