

'US, Mossad played roles in 9/11 event'

Brigadier General Yahya Rahim-Safavi

Following the Iranian president's doubts on the 9/11 event, a top military adviser to the Leader of the Islamic Revolution says the CIA and Mossad were involved in the attacks.

"The US and the Zionists developed the strategy of the September 11 attacks in an effort to counter the Islamic vigilance and to control energy resources in the Middle East," IRNA quoted Brigadier General Yahya Rahim-Safavi as saying on Saturday.

He further added that al-Qaeda and its leader Osama bin Laden did not possess the essential intelligence capacity anywhere near the level of CIA, Pentagon and the FBI in order to conduct the surprise attacks against sensitive centers in the United States on September 11.

According to General Rahim-Safavi, heads of Israel's Mossad and the US played roles in the event.

"The September 11 attacks in the US and the shameful act of Qur'an burning by the US and Zionist regime (Israel) were in line with Islamophobia efforts by enemies of Islam who have fears over the spread of Islam and the Islamic vigilance," he further explained.

The Iranian commander also pointed out that the US and certain Western countries invaded Iraq and Afghanistan, a move that proved security is not sustainable in the world.

Moreover, General Rahim-Safavi pointed to the high potentials of Muslim countries and predicted that the Muslim world with its unique features and capabilities will turn into a premier and important power center of the world in the near future.

In his address to the UN General Assembly on Thursday, Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad said the US took advantage of the 'suspicious' September 11 incidents to justify its destructive occupation of Afghanistan and Iraq that cost many thousands of innocent lives.

The Iranian chief executive went on to raise serious questions about the credibility of the US government's account of the 9/11 attacks, suggesting that "a very powerful and complex terrorist group, able to successfully cross all layers of the American intelligence and security, carried out the attacks."

 Anyone who believes the official US government story is a brainwashed fool with no ability to think for him or her self. Do your own research on the internet and see how much evidence is against the Mossad and other Zionist conspirators. Search "9/11 all the proof in the world".

 All the American government has to do is face up to the legitimate questions about 911 and answer them fully , make available all the information they have held back . Ignoring the questions and maintaining a stony silence is tantamount to an admission of guilt in many peoples view my own included. Possibly there will be another inquiry but by then every thing will be fogged by time and guilty will escape.

 @stickinyoureye -Mohammed Atta and friends were qualified pilots, they didn't need to take their manuals with them any more than any other pilot would do so. As for taking their Holy Books with them - well who knows, maybe they were afraid that the Qurans would be destroyed in the fires and didn't want that to occur? I'm guessing that would be a bad thing to happen, but as I say it's only a guess.

 Iran may be right. It is true that some Zionists held top positions in U.S. military. In months before the attacks, the number two at the Pentagon was a hardline pro-Israel zionist. Others at State Department and White House were also powerful zionists who coordinated the plan after Al Gore was forced to concede defeat in U.S. elections.

evidence and failure of the US government to investigate the atrocity is that it was an inside job. Maybe we'll have to look to Iran to help us regain democracy.

@Tim BThe passport was "discovered" on the rubble soon after the collapse of the towers roughly on the same day the police found one of the vehicles of one of the hijackers. In the vehicle, they found a Quran along with a "how to fly a 747" manual of somekind. Surely if one was to embark on a suicide mission, would you leave your holy book behind and technical manuals you will need? Of course not, these items along with the passports are plants. Most likely Mohammad Atta and the rest were never on the flight and were ruthlessly executed by the Western security services and their bodies disposed of in secret.

The president of Iran has hit where it hurts most. As head of the government of a very important country in the world, it is essentially the first official challenge to the 9/11 story, and the multi trillion dollar project called war on terror (Islam) and terrorists (Muslims) that was launched in the aftermath using this as a pretext. The president of Iran has in essence attacked at the very foundation of the basis of this so called war on terror, and as a result with their heads boiling, the leaders of America, Britain and Israel are raging and quivering in anger. If the momentum is kept on this issue the entire project by the West led by America will fall on the ground.

Tim B

UK - firstly, no, they don't say that, and secondly, it may seem surprising that a passport survived, but actually many other personal effects from the flights survived, including a letter which was later forwarded to its addressee. For some examples see: http://www.911myths.com/html/passport_recovered.html

Indeed, 9/11 is an internal oriented syndicate propelled by the desire of the US-Zionist agenda to attack islamic states at the pretext of fighting terrorism. However, the ongoing wars on Afghanistan and Iraq (and the drone attacks in Pakistan) have showed the far reaching agenda of the American-Zionists emprialims manoeuvres to wage wars on emerging islamic states at the expense of defending Israel. It is a mere fact to this date after almost nie years of Afghanistan invasion and seven years of Iraq invasion. Unless the queer and keen probe is made on the 9/11 there would be no clues to avoid the essence of homemade US terror plots that are engineered by the Jewish lobiests and the pro-Israeli hardliners in the US state machineries - the CIA and US Army.

Surely allowed by God to prove the harm in it.

they say the jet fuel from the plane was burning at such a heat that it was able to melt the metal structure of the towers causing the collapse...so HOW THE HELL DID A PASSPORT MANAGE TO SURVIVE!?? everyone has been taken for a fool long enough! if they are so sure about the official report, why not let independent investigations confirm it? it would surely quiet all opposition.

Most Americans want an independent enquiry into 9/11. It is a pity that the US regime doesn't respect its own people and their wishes. Yet their current leader tries to reassure Muslims around the world that he is going to respect them!! Sure.

Leader of the government of Iran has just done Shock and Awe to America Britain and Israel. He has practically removed the roots and foundation of rationale behind this so called war on terrorism (Islam) and terrorists (Muslims). He has echoed and given voice at the center stage to what 99[[[]%] Muslims already believe. If the momentum is kept on this issue, sooner than later, this entire project by the West will crumble terribly.
