

WikiLeaks: A Very Short Coincidence Theory

by Maidhc Ó Cathail / December 20th, 2010

It is surely just a coincidence that the law firm – Finers Stephens Innocent – which represents Julian Assange and set up the Julian Assange Defense Fund is also legal adviser to the Rothschild Waddesdon Trust; that the partially Rothschild-owned Economist gave Assange its 2008 Freedom of Expression Award; that Lord Rothschild is deputy chairman of BSkyB, whose warmongering chairman, Rupert Murdoch, and his propagandist father were lauded as fearless advocates of the truth by the WikiLeaks founder in an op-ed in the Murdoch-owned The Australian; that the only world leader “undoubtedly delighted” by the leaks, Benjamin Netanyahu – who often stays with Murdoch in London and has the award-winning pro-Israel media magnate on his “list of millionaires” (i.e. potential donors) – was singled out by Assange as a believer in diplomatic transparency; and that WikiLeaks has provided an unexpected “diplomatic coup” for the criminal state which was first promised to British Zionists in an enigmatic 1917 letter to an earlier Lord Rothschild.

These intriguing connections, which might appear suspicious to those suffering from the “crippled epistemology” associated with anti-Semitic conspiracy theorists, are undoubtedly coincidental.

That the Wikileaks documents were planted to create the impression of a still omnipotent US with whole world in its pocket is plausible. But, of course, an Israeli newspaper is hardly a very credible source for the proposition that it is a “diplomatic coup” for Israel. I would think that that claim is itself part of the scam, if there is one. On the contrary, the whole thing has been laid on much too thick! Nobody could seriously believe that every leader in the Middle East wants the US to attack Iran, for example. One or two leaders, perhaps, but not more or less all of them! Ditto for the leaders of Eastern Europe, who supposedly all want US troops to guard against a supposed Russian attack. Russia’s relations with the EU are so good that nobody can imagine why they would want to attack an EU Member State! Thus, it’s as hard to see how those claims could be true as it is easy to see why a collapsing US and its Israeli masters would want the world to believe they were true.

Small aside on the Balfour Declaration: “enigmatic” is indeed the word, and of course, Zionist propaganda notwithstanding, it is in no way legally binding, least of all on British governments of nearly 100 years later! “View with favour the ESTABLISHMENT in PALESTINE of a national HOME for the Jewish people”, “best endeavours to facilitate” and, of course “it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine”.

Not much joy for the Zionists there! Indeed, once they got the mandate, the British did everything they could to prevent Jewish immigration into Palestine. And, of course, it was Jews, not Arabs, who assassinated Lord Moyne in 1944 and blew up the seat of the British mandate authorities in 1946, which suggests that they certainly didn't see the British as their friends! And, indeed, the Arab armies that fought against Israel in 1948 had British officers. Thus, whatever may have been the reason why the Balfour wrote to Lord Rothschild, their subsequent conduct shows that the British government never had any intention of doing anything to create a Jewish state and Zionist hostility to the British shows that the Zionists of that day fully realised that that was so.

{Thus, whatever may have been the reason why the Balfour wrote to Lord Rothschild, their subsequent conduct shows that the British government never had any intention of doing anything to create a Jewish state}

According to John Cornelius, one of the link attach to this post, the British Government, indeed, played a pivotal role in creating a 'jewish' homeland for Judeofascists on the ruins of Palestinian homeland.

{The Balfour Declaration took the form of a letter, dated Nov. 2, 1917, from Arthur Balfour, foreign secretary of the British government, to Lord Walter Rothschild, head of the organization of British Zionists. This letter promised that the British government would work to bring about "a national home for the Jewish people in Palestine."

I have written three earlier articles in the Washington Report on this subject, and my views have evolved with the passage of time. What has not changed is my belief in a British-Zionist trade whereby the Zionists ASSISTED in bringing AMERICA INTO THE WAR and, in return, the British promised them Palestine.}

Today, British government like French, Canadian and American has always supported the Zionist crimes against humanity and the Gaza genocide in 2009. STOP FOOLING YOURSELF.

Mr. Ó Cathail:

Thank you for your work. We need people like you who are not fooled by the Zionist propaganda to sell Assange, an operative agent, as 'freedom fighter'. The agent of the judeofascists in the 'leftist' circle can write as much as they want in support of an agent of the Zionists, but they cannot fool us. What is the purpose of the SELECTED information? As many believe: is misinformation where have been release for the purpose of SPIN by the Judeofascists and their circle including the 'left' like CPD, Campaign for Peace and Democracy, who are partner in the business of the DESTABILIZATION PROJECT OF THE ZIOHNI/IMPERIALIST against the targeted countries : Iraq, Iran, Afghanistan, Sudan, Zimbabwe, Cuba and so on and so forth. ONLY THE FOOLS TRUST THIS 'anti war' organization in the service of the Evil Empire. They cannot fool us but themselves.

The campaign for Assange is modeled according to HOLLYWOOD, controlled by the Zionists constructing 'celebrity' to bring the ignorant population of Americas on board. One of these constructed celebrity is George Clooney or Mia Farrow and many more who are active in DESTABILIZARTION OF SUDAN through films and propaganda campaign based on lies and deception such as 'Child Slavery' or 'Genocide in Darfur' where was publicized by the phony 'left' as well. This propaganda has entered the mind of millions of Iranians and spread to other Iranians by the illiterate Iranian traitors who act as 5th column for the Evil Empire. These 'celebrity' makes the dissemination of information MORE DIFFICULT NOT EASIER and Assange is exactly doing this kind of service for the people who are dragging the world towards 'world government' by using his 'celebrity' status to capture MINDS AND HEARTS OF THE IGNORAT PEOPLE ALL OVER THE WORLD., This intelligent operations like other phony organizations such as ICC does not influence the behavior of the western countries such as Britain, Israel, Australia, Canada, the US but limit and undermine the border and sovereignty of weaker countries all over the world.

Majority of the WAR CRIMINALS who have committed crimes against humanity are in the capital of the western counties who travel frequently all over the world. People of the Middle East have made it clear who is the war criminal and which countries are a threat to world peace, US (90%) Israel (80%) but through the 'leaked' information and deliberate spin due to selected release, Iran has painted the main threat to Judeofascists' world and they think they can factor in the constructed information in the implementation of the evil empire's foreign policy to be carried out by their black and white stooges at the white house and state department.

I will begin to believe wikileaks is for real when it tells me something that I can believe in about the methods and the occasions the British and the Americans have used lies, wars, revolutions, their third world dictators, disease, bombs, false flags, black ops, bribes, assassinations, so-called terror attacks, Wall Street, and the banks to steal the wealth of the world. Until then, I will simply add to the above list.
