Over 100000 at today's demonstration in London (Update: with no proper rallying point, violence en route to Israeli Embassy - as Galloway had predicted)

By: IMCistas, UK Indymedia on: 10.01.2009 [20:55] (1589 reads)

The stop-the-war coalition website is down, so alternative media source like UK Indymedia are crucial in the reporting. The current BBC report:

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/uk/7821928.stm>

is typically trying to make out that numbers are slipping. The eyewitness report suggests something quite different.

IMCistas | 10.01.2009 13:27 | Anti-militarism | Palestine | Repression

After 14 days of Israeli state aggression against the people of Palestine 802 people are dead, over 257 of which are children. Across the world there have been militant protests, Saturday 10th January marks the second UK national demonstration in London since the invasion. Over 100,000 people are expected to take part in the action.

15.55

The Israeli embassy is now closed off to the public and is lined with riot police in full riot gear and shields. There are unconfirmed reports that some protestors have attempted to access the Israeli embassy from the rear.

15.45

On Kensington High Street the police have put barriers between protestors on the road and the pavement which has caused a crush. The crowd were shouting "shame on you!" at the police who are now wearing riot gear. A man has climbed a lamp post, and the police are pre-occupied with trying to get him down. Also a smoke bomb has ignited. There are many riot police situated on the side streets of Kensington High Street.

15.20

Confirmed - The crowd outside the embassy pulled apart some of the barriers. They have now been put back again by police, who are now wearing their helmets.

15.10

Near Holland Street, W8, 5 riot vans spotted with another 6 rental vans around the corner. Police are putting on their riot helmets. The crowd is good natured.

13.45

The protest is moving off now.

13.25

It has been announced from the main stage that over 100,000 people are present.

13.10

People have been arriving in Hyde Park for a few hours. There have been some speeches, and there are various stalls for Palestinian liberation groups. There is an anarchist bloc with red and black flags. People are preparing to move off.

Update:

17.40

About 1000 people reported kettled outside of the Israeli embassy.

17.39

Police on horses by Kensington High Street charging protestors. This would explain the injuries.

17.25

Protestor injuries reported, one leg injury, one head injury, and two protestors have been spotted being stretchered off in neck braces with what looks like head injuries.

17.20

Lines of police horses are now forming. Some people seem to be attempting to take on the demonstrators. Protestors are forming barricades in front of the horses, whilst a clothing shop has been covered in red paint and about six windows have been broken.

17.16

Starbucks on Kensington High Street has had it's windows smashed using a police barrier. The shop has now been trashed. Starbucks is owned by Howard Schultz who is a staunch Zionist and supporter of the occupation of Palestine. The police attempted to charge the crowd but have backed off. Two unconscious police officers have been taken out of the crowds.

16.52

The police have completely closed off Hyde Park.

16.47

Outside the Israeli embassy there is a stand-off between protestors and police. Protestors have removed some of the barriers again, and a few missiles seen thrown at the police. Three of four lines of riot cops have walked out from near the Royal Garden Hotel into Kensington High Street. They are letting protestors leave but not towards the Israeli embassy. They may soon attempt to kettle the crowd.

same URL: <http://www.indymedia.org.uk/en/2009/01/417698.html>

Further update

19.15

Some protestors are suffering from the effects of minus temperatures, so it was decided to provide personal information to the police. Protestors are being escorted away from the kettle by riot police in different directions, presumably to prevent the protestors regrouping later. One protestor has said it "reminds her of an Israeli checkpoint". The police horses are leaving now, but there are still hundreds of police vans lining the streets.

19.10

The police are releasing protestors from the kettle one at a time, taking their names, addresses, and photographs through a tunnel of cops. The police have announced that all 1000-2000 protestors in the kettle are suspected of criminal damage. This practice is of dubious legality and protestors are discussing whether to refuse providing personal information.

18.50

Up to 2000 people still reported kettled outside of the Israeli Embassy, a long wait is expected. There are still many people outside of the kettle too.

17.55

The protest is currently split in two halves, with thousands on Kensington High Street where there is a stand-off, and many people still in Hyde Park.

17.40

About between 1000 and 2000 people reported kettled outside of the Israeli embassy. Police on horseback were moving down Kensington Road towards Hyde Park forcing people back.

16.57

Eye-witness saw a Muslim woman with head injuries being stretchered off, and children as young as 10 years old being crushed against barricades after a panic was caused by a charge from the riot police.

16.55

Riot police on foot reported to have fanned out near the Israeli embassy and charged the crowd, forcing them over metal barriers where they were enclosed. People had no where to go and there were many injuries. Two protestors have been spotted being stretchered off in neck braces with what looks like head injuries.

Thousands of demonstrators have marched through London to call for an immediate ceasefire in the conflict in Gaza

The protest started peacefully but there were confrontations as police tried to move demonstrators away from the gates of the Israeli embassy.

The windows of a Starbucks was smashed and three police officers were injured as a minority of people threw missiles.

The Metropolitan Police says 20,000 people marched but the BBC estimates the figure could be as high as 50,000.

It is estimated there were several hundred police officers dealing with around 200 protesters outside the embassy.

This group are being allowed to leave the cordon one at a time, some are being identified by police and are being taken away for questioning.

BBC correspondent Robert Hall said given the number of people involved, the protest had been peaceful.

"But as darkness fell a small number of people, several hundred, have begun confronting police and missiles have been thrown," he said.

"Although these are ugly and unwelcome scenes, they do not represent what has happened for most of the afternoon."

'Irresponsible actions'

Metropolitan Police Commander Bob Broadhurst said: "We are very disappointed by the irresponsible actions of those who have challenged police by ripping apart security barriers and throwing objects at them.

"A hard core of demonstrators are undermining the cause of the vast majority of people on this demonstration, who are law-abiding citizens wishing to protest peacefully."

One man has been arrested on suspicion of aggravated trespass. Two more people have also been arrested; one for assault on a police officer.

The march was organised by groups including Stop the War Coalition, the British Muslim Initiative and the Palestine Solidarity Campaign.

Officers hurt as Gaza protest ends in violence

By Laura May, PA
Saturday, 10 January 2009

Demonstrators force their way through a barrier outside the Israeli embassy during the protests (GETTY IMAGES)

An anti-war demonstration ended in violence tonight as protesters clashed with riot police in London.

The protest against Israel's attacks on Gaza saw one police officer knocked unconscious and two others receive facial injuries, a police spokesman said.

An initially peaceful demonstration ended with a group of protesters facing mounted riot police throwing missiles and smashing windows on Kensington High Street near the Israeli Embassy.

Riot officers from the Metropolitan Police force charged at the group of mainly young men.

Sticks and barriers were hurled at the officers by the group, many of whom were masked.

About 300 police in full riot gear had surrounded a similar-sized group of protesters pushing them up the street.

Three people were arrested, police said.

I am truly shocked to read your post. You were the one defending me not so long ago, and you made so many good points...and here you are showing your true colors. A wolf in sheep's clothing uh?? Did the recent financial meltdown based in the U$ hit you particularly hard or something?? Did the Mujahideen send one of your kids back to hell in Iraq or Afghanistan??? Or is this simply you fulfilling your false god(s)'s demand to defend and uphold the chosen people, the chosen race, and the chosen tribes even if it means an end to your own nation? One wonders if you were ever even Catholic as you once claimed!

I knew something was wrong when you didn't have the guts to debate me on the infovlad forum (which ironically, has disappeared from the net).

And a culture of death is better than a culture of oppression, imperialism, sexual depravity, racism, patriotism, and materialism. So woe to you and away with you.

That is all I have come here to say. May Allah (s.w.t.) give Muslims in Gaza, Diyala, the lands of the Pashto, Kashmir, Chechnya, Bosnia, Somalia, Yemen, and all the lands of the former Khalifah the strength to unite and destroy global zionism and its various subsidiaries and slaves!! The life of this world is but a false illusion compared to the Hereafter...Ameen.

:Looking back over the past week...

1. Demonstration last Saturday much bigger than expected. Police (under govt pressure?) play down numbers. Consequently, crowd has to be "managed" into an underpass so they can maintain order youtube video; www.youtube.com/watch?v=YC0aPF-u6rY

2. Galloway taken off the air at Talksport radio

3. Galloway writes to UK minister about plans for this saturday's demonstration - criticises refusal to allow people to rally in Kensington Gardens. Letter removed from his website but available at:
www.iraq-war.ru/article/186365

4. On the day of the demonstration, the organisers website becomes unavailable.

5. As demonstrators gather, police again vastly underestimate the numbers attending, despite all the advance publicity. Again, results in "underpolicing".

6. As can be seen from the youtube video, the march is clearly underpoliced, as they try to race people away from Hyde Park - where observers say there are over 100000 people.

7. As people pour into High Street Kensington, barriers cannot cope with the numbers of people, and order breaks down. It is a miracle no-one is seriously hurt.

Who's fault - it has to be the people who (for political reasons?) vastly understated the number of demonstrators, although this is bound to be strenuously denied. It should be the job of the political opposition to demand an inquiry, but the Conservatives are just as much "Friends of Israel" as are New Labour, so little chance of that.

I expect that future marches will be banned. Maybe - speculating wildly - this was the tactic anyway. More likely... as usual... it was an operational cock up, but those responsible will shift the blame.

The GOOD news is that this "cock up", and the magnificent turn out of protestors, forced the demonstration onto BBC TV prime time news.

According to Terence Bunch...

by stopwar on 10.01.2009 [23:02]

about 75000 left Hyde Park bound for the Israeli Embassy. That is a serious number of people.

Report and pics: www.indymedia.org.uk/en/2009/01/417810.html

A report at the embassy end suggests that no more than 10000 people made it to their destination:

www.indymedia.org.uk/en/2009/01/417820.html

Some weather-beaten protestors were less than impressed with the organisers, who had apparently spent over £20000 on the demonstration....

Its not enough

by pilot-x on 10.01.2009 [23:24]

While this little party was going on another 30 Palastinians are DEAD. With a bit of training and some radios and picks and hammers the crowd of 100,000 could have easily have overwhelmed all the police and made their way to Israel embassy and knocked it BRICK BY BRICK to the ground. Then we might see some movement on the issue. ITS NOT ENOUGH to just hang around shouting and throwing shoes and carrying signs. $@!$@$ the NWO

What ever stopwar

by MmArRgDdOnN on 10.01.2009 [23:28]

What these figures do prove is that there are alot of anti-semitic twats demonstrating in England today,..., what's freaking new there.

Half them or more don't even know what the phuck they are demonstrating for in the first place and there is no soccer (Football) game to go to and half of the rest don't know that they are being sucked into a demonstration that is not for peace but a political ploy of anti-semitic terrorism apologists like yourself.

Needless to say,..., one just has to look at the population of London and realize that by far the vast majority in ythe order of 99% of the population was not at said demonstration,..., and heres the rub

It has become common knowledge that the UK has become a hotbed of Islamofascist wankerism anyway

So what's your point stopwar,..., there are a whole lot of anti-semitic bigots in the UK just like yourself,...,

By the way stopwar

Are you just a plain ol' run of the mill anarchist anything goes activist or a dedicated peacetripper activist or just a demented anti-semitic terrorism apologist activist,..., or are you so stund that you don't even know your expunging anti-semiticism like a seasoned bigoted vet.

So which is it stopwar,..., your comming off like an anti-semitic twat more and more all the time,..., how about an open declaration to the forum about wether or not your just a Jew hating slimeball spewing the atypical anti-semitic goosestepper wannabee party line.

Come out of the closet little one,..., show your real spots.

@pilot-x

by stopwar on 11.01.2009 [00:02]

The demonstrators did what they could - you should be proud of them. And they DID succeed in getting on the world's media - even the likes of CNN.

I'm glad to report that George Galloway is back - you can hear him live on www.talksport.net for another hour.

Most of the talk is about the demonstration, and the police lies about the numbers that attended.

@smarmy

by stopwar on 11.01.2009 [00:04]

Why don't you ring George Galloway NOW! on www.talksport.net - I'm sure they'll have International lines. He had your mate "Joe the Plumber" from the US on his show last night... you can offer Joe your support.

On hooliganism and the silent majority

by MmArRgDdOnN on 11.01.2009 [00:11]

So how many anti-semitic twats got their mug shots taken at the demonstration today stopwar,..., eh

Now we all know the term hooliganism was coined to depict the UK rabble rousers that were tearing apart europes fooseball aka football aka soccer venues and the host cities they were trying to brawl their way through,..., how many of these demonstrators were just plain ol' run of the mill hooligans trying to get in an extracircular brawl without having to pay for a ticket to the ol' pitch.

How about the silent majority,..., and we are talking a whopping huge majority that didn't partake in the UK's second favorite sport for juvenile delinquents to strut their stuff,..., yup you got it,..., the second biggest and fastest growing sport in the UK today,..., public mischief and hooliganism,..., anything for a good ol' punch up,..., and for any sublime reason I might add.

So what is it stopwar,..., you a standard run of the mill hatemongering anti-semitic terrorism apologist bigot or just a wanker anarchist,...,

We all know that it is the murderous Hamas terrorists that started this gunfight,..., and we all know that they are purposefully hiding behind the women and children and fully responsible for their deaths not the Israelis,..., so what's your point stopwar,..., you trying another round of terrorism apologist claptrap here or what,...,

Come out of the closet stopwar,..., come on out little one,..., you can't hide in there forever.

Israel Murderous Abomination to Jews

by Sandy on 11.01.2009 [00:30]

Good to see the International Jewish Anti-Zionist Network well represented at the huge London protest march condemning the massacres of People by the Israeli military.

Mr Armageddon, not being Jewish , does not understand that political Zionism is the anti-thesis of Jewish law. the murder, ethnic cleansing and genocide is against all religious principles of all religions including Judaism and the Torah.

It is Anitsemitic to pretend Political Zionism and the genocidal actions of it are realted and supported by any truthful jew.

Those who support Political Zionism and the massacres are self lying and hate the law of the Torah.

Rmember even the NAZIS didn't bomb the Warsaw ghetto as it was collective punishment of civilians.

The Apartheid State of Israel is worse than the NAZIS and now all the world sees it in red and black. the Stooges and shills who protec the NAZI regime in Israel are to be condemned as men of corrupted and tainted morals.

well done demonstrators and Boycott STARBUCKS , protest outside it everyday, vigil outside the Apartheid Israeli Embassy.

Israel could have been a great state if it had been founded with truth and not the deceit and ethnic cleansing. A tolerant multicultural State that could have been an example to the ME.

instead we have this Murderous Abomination.

"As can be seen from the youtube video, the march is clearly underpoliced, as they try to race people away from Hyde Park - where observers say there are over 100000 people."

That's good news. They're getting the word out.
That makes me see the British in a kinder light.

Apparently the Zionist media machinery is weakening. Cracks are showing in its power.
Regular people are joining together and bypassing the main stream media.

Very happy to engage with you, smarmy...

by stopwar on 11.01.2009 [00:34]

if you don't want to talk to George direct! Didn't think you'd take up the offer!!! I wonder why???

I was out on a Peace March today, probably similar to what the Jews in London are planning for tomorrow.

From what I've heard of the demonstration today, the violence was caused by police mismanagement. I'm not criticising individual officers, who were just trying to do their job, but those in authority who decided to treat a peace march like a call for revolution, and scared a lot of demonstrators into doing something. With those numbers involved they were lucky they DIDN'T have a riot on their hands.

Speaking of football crowds, have you heard of Hillsborough?

Sandy

by Iranian-Shi'ite on 11.01.2009 [00:38]

quote:

"The Apartheid State of Israel is worse than the NAZIs . . . "

I agree with that statement because:

1. The oppression that the Zionists have inflicted has lasted for many decades whereas the Nazi oppression lasted only for about one decade.
2. The Zionist propaganda is much more powerful in its ability to spin its crimes and hide its crimes and misrepresent its victims.
3. The Zionist oppression includes pushing the USA to attack Iraq and kill about one million children there between 1991 and 2002.
4. The Zionists collaborated with the Nazis (see 51 documents) and prevented the rescue of Jews from Europe.

There are probably others that you can think of.

@Iranian Shiite

by stopwar on 11.01.2009 [00:40]

Yes, this is encouraging. People are ANGRY! Smarmy doesn't seem to get that.

I was disappointed with the Press TV website's coverage - like many media sources they fell into the trap of taking the police figures (12000) which were obvious lies.

(It looks like getting rid of Sir Ian Blair hasn't removed the met police "media management" lying culture typified by the reporting of the death of Jen Paul de Menezes)

@Sandy

We had a number of jews in our little march. Someone even played the Jewish wedding thing on a fiddle. Fine! No doubt it will be the same sort of thing throughout the UK...

And that's the way it should be. All the jews I've met and socialised with have been peaceful people.

as I've said before, people should be marching on the BBC, not the Israeli embassy. As with the police.... individual reporters are fine, sincere, and try to do a good job. But it is clear that they have their orders...

Several years ago, a local BBC reporter rang me as I was about to leave for a London demonstration - he was going to ring me as I was on the march, and would give me airtime on local radio. The ring never came. A few days later he had the decency to ring me back and apologise - said there had been a terrorist attack somewhere just before the march started, and the agenda had changed... says it all really.

Good idea - if he's not being banned we shouldn't just ignore him, or he'll just ruin whatever threads he wishes.

I havn't heard a peep from Canadians

by pilot-x on 11.01.2009 [02:17]

Have not seen one sign other than mine.

A few of my mates form work are quite concerned however I think it is bad bad bad as canadians are horrified of the taser and will not raise ANY issues with the authorities.. There has been protests in several cities but none here in Victoria. I am doing my best to refrain from violence...Its very very hard on me to sit idly and do nothing. Its agonizingly exasperating as with england we have security cameras everywhere and all is basically sewn up in big brother police states favor.

@pilot-x

by stopwar on 11.01.2009 [02:24]

Yes, the surveillance in cities is very annoying for everyone. We've had it for years here and I think enough people have decided they are not going to be cowed by being filmed everywhere. The principle of safety in numbers still applies to being on camera. I guess I must have been filmed yesterday but I'm just exercising my democratic right, so they can film me all they like.

However... the police penned in about 1000 people after yesterday's London demonstration in relation to "criminal damage" (e.g. Starbucks window) and took their details. Will be interesting to see what happens next.

Its not just in the cities.

Every intersection the entire length of Vancouver Island has cameras...

I cannot travel to see my G/f without passing under at least 100 cameras. LOL when they first put a camera in the lobby of my apt. building I took a piece of cardboard and covered the lens... A couple of hours later KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK... my landlord at the door. TOO funny.

Have also seen strange steel boxes high on poles

by pilot-x on 11.01.2009 [02:39]

with solar panels on them. I don't think they are cameras. They look similar to the ugly UK speed cams but no lens...Big brother is a peeping Tom pervert... My tax dollars at work.

Time for the debunk again

by MmArRgDdOnN on 11.01.2009 [03:22]

Well,..., the real truth to the matter is the fact that it is the Hamas terrorists that were attacking Israel with the rockets bought from China by Iran transhipped though Yemen to Egyptian smugglers that got them to the Hamas using the border tunnels.

It is the Hamas that has initiated this current episode of open hostilities in the region,..., they are doing it to scuttle the peace talks on purpose and the Israelis are kicking their miserable murderous arses quite royally.

Rathe simple after all the bullshiite' sophist rhetoric is removed,...,

The Hamas are attacking the Internationally Recognized Sovereign Nation of Israel that is exercising it's full right to self defense under international law.

It is the Hamas that are the war criminals,..., the entire world knows it and these people are spewing nonsense to avoid admitting they are backing the perpetrators of murderous terrorism.

In other words,..., the Hamas are getting exactly what they deserve,..., nothing more,..., nothing less and the civilians are getting injured because the Hamas are using the women and children as human shields,..., the news all around the world is saying the same,..., and this debunk is complete.

By the way

by MmArRgDdOnN on 11.01.2009 [03:26]

That reactor in Iran and the cascading centrifuges,..., guess what folks,..., soon history,..., no nuke for Iran,..., too bad so sad,..., you never should have been sponsoring those terrorists Iran,..., your next on the list of Islamofascist terrorism sponsoring state to go down,..., if I were an Iranian I'd be making good and sure I was well clear of that reactor and the plant trying to get enrich the U238 and get enough U235 and/or plutonium to develop a nuke,..., both sites are soon ancient history.

And you thought that we stopped looking your way Iran

by MmArRgDdOnN on 11.01.2009 [03:29]

Wrong again,..., seriously,..., get away from the reactor and cascading centrifuge sites as fast as you can folks,..., there be glow in the dark scorpions, sidewinders, ants and scarab beetles soon,..., seriously folks,..., the writing has been on that wall for a long time,..., never should have been buying those rockets from China should you Iran,..., that cats out of the bag as well.

oops

by MmArRgDdOnN on 11.01.2009 [03:32]

Glow in the dark scarab beetles,..., still can't type worth a damn,..., but heed the warning,..., we are coming after the reactor and enrichment facilities very soon,..., and when I say we I do mean the free Democracies of the world here,..., take note Iran,..., the gambit is about to fail miserably.

To bad,..., so sad,...,NOT.

The dead.

Was the blood too red for MaggotD Or just right? I wonder. Do the Israeklis have a quota for dead babies? How high? 500 more? Does the IDF pay bonuses per dead kid? What? How much? One killed Palestinian child gets you one free pizza, bagel?

Some nonUS sources are reporting that Bush had a change of heart and is now calling for an immediate ceasefire ... this in a conversation with EU's Mirek TopolaneK.

I had the exact same crap follow every comment I ever placed on the Globe and mail. He's a CSIS spook I'm sure.

I know even the type of cars they like to drive...

by pilot-x on 11.01.2009 [04:25]

Saw one today. Beady eyed dude giving me the sinister look at an intersection as I slowly passed him in the opposite direction. Most Canadians are too distracted to notice...
