LAHORE: Former British prime minister Tony Blair has won the million-dollar Dan David prize for "his exceptional leadership and steadfast determination in helping to engineer agreements and forge lasting solutions to areas in conflict". The award is presented by the Dan David Foundation, at Tel Aviv University. A spokesman for Blair said the money would be donated to the Tony Blair Faith Foundation. Blair's entry as a Dan David laureate on the prize's website hailed him as "one of the most outstanding statesmen of our era". It praised his role in the Northern Ireland peace process, his "steadfast determination and morally courageous leadership" over Kosovo. But the decision to support the US invasion of Iraq was not mentioned. Three Dan David prizes are awarded every year in the past, present and future categories. Former US vice-president and environmental campaigner Al Gore won last year's prize. daily times monitor.

Blair is a war criminal by informatron- on 18.02.2009 [08:36]

Even so, he is tooted to be the First President of Europe if ever the Lisbon treaty is shoved down the throats of the Irish by the Zionist Holohoaxers.

He belongs in jail.
