What Christians Don't Know About Israel

By Grace Halsell

American Jews sympathetic to Israel dominate key positions in all areas of our government where decisions are made regarding the Middle East. This being the case, is there any hope of ever changing U.S. policy? American Presidents as well as most members of Congress support Israel — and they know why. U.S. Jews sympathetic to Israel donate lavishly to their campaign coffers.

The answer to achieving an even-handed Middle East policy might lie elsewhere — among those who support Israel but don't really know why. This group is the vast majority of Americans. They are well-meaning, fair-minded Christians who feel bonded to Israel — and Zionism — often from atavistic feelings, in some cases dating from childhood.

I am one of those. I grew up listening to stories of a mystical, allegorical, spiritual Israel. This was before a modern political entity with the same name appeared on our maps. I attended Sunday School and watched an instructor draw down window- type shades to show maps of the Holy Land. I imbibed stories of a Good and Chosen people who fought against their Bad “unChosen” enemies.

In my early 20s, I began traveling the world, earning my living as a writer. I came to the subject of the Middle East rather late in my career. I was sadly lacking in knowledge regarding the area. About all I knew was what I had learned in Sunday School.

And typical of many U.S. Christians, I somehow considered a modern state created in 1948 as a homeland for Jews persecuted under the Nazis as a replica of the spiritual, mystical Israel I heard about as a child. When in 1979 I initially went to Jerusalem, I planned to write about the three great monotheistic religions and leave out politics. “Not write about politics?” scoffed one Palestinian, smoking a waterpipe in the Old Walled City. “We eat politics, morning, noon and night!”

As I would learn, the politics is about land, and the co-claimants to that land: the indigenous Palestinians who have lived there for 2,000 years and the Jews who started arriving in large numbers after the Second World War. By living among Israeli Jews as well as Palestinian Christians and Muslims, I saw, heard, smelled, experienced the police state tactics Israelis use against Palestinians.

Monstrous evils are being committed on the Palestinians by the Israelis — who do everything possible to get Christians to believe “End Times” Evangelists and support “the people of the Old Testament” (they are NOT the Israelites of the Bible). They wine and dine — possibly even bribe and threaten — these preachers in the US to keep up this non-stop EVIL charade. You think Jesus would want you to keep silent? [INCOG]

My research led to a book entitled “Journey to Jerusalem.” My journey not only was enlightening to me as regards Israel, but also I came to a deeper, and sadder, understanding of my own country. I say sadder understanding because I began to see that, in Middle East politics, we the people are not making the decisions, but rather that supporters of Israel are doing so. And typical of most Americans, I tended to think the U.S. media was “free” to print news impartially.

‘It shouldn’t be published. It’s anti-Israel.’

In the late 1970s, when I first went to Jerusalem, I was unaware that editors could and would classify “news” depending on who was doing what to whom. On my initial visit to Israel-Palestine, I had interviewed dozens of young Palestinian men. About one in four related stories of torture.

Israeli police had come in the night, dragged them from their beds and placed hoods over their heads. Then in jails the Israelis had kept them in isolation, besieged them with loud, incessant noises, hung them upside down and had sadistically mutilated their genitals. I had not read such stories in the U.S. media. Wasn’t it news? Obviously, I naively thought, U.S. editors simply didn’t know it was happening.

On a trip to Washington, DC, I hand-delivered a letter to Frank Mankiewicz, then head of the public radio station WETA. I explained I had taped interviews with Palestinians who had been brutally tortured. And I’d make them available to him. I got no reply. I made several phone calls. Eventually I was put through to a public relations person, a Ms. Cohen, who said my letter had been lost. I wrote again. In time I began to realize what I hadn’t known: had it been Jews who were strung up and tortured, it would be news. But interviews with tortured Arabs were “lost” at WETA.

The process of getting my book Journey to Jerusalem published also was a learning experience. Bill Griffin, who signed a contract with me on behalf of MacMillan Publishing Company, was a former Roman Catholic priest. He assured me that no one other than himself would edit the book. As I researched the book, making several trips to Israel and Palestine, I met frequently with Griffin, showing him sample chapters. “Terrific,” he said of my material.

The day the book was scheduled to be published, I went to visit MacMillan’s. Checking in at a reception desk, I spotted Griffin across a room, cleaning out his desk. His secretary Margie came to greet me. In tears, she whispered for me to meet her in the ladies room. When we were alone, she confided, “He’s been fired.” She indicated it was because he had signed a contract for a book that was sympathetic to Palestinians. Griffin, she said, had no time to see me.

Later, I met with another MacMillan official, William Curry. “I was told to take your manuscript to the Israeli Embassy, to let them read it for mistakes,” he told me. “They were not pleased. They asked me, “You are not going to publish this book, are you?” I asked, “Were there mistakes?” “Not mistakes as such. But it shouldn’t be published. It’s anti-Israel.”

Somehow, despite obstacles to prevent it, the presses had started rolling. After its publication in 1980, I was invited to speak in a number of churches. Christians generally reacted with disbelief. Back then, there was little or no coverage of Israeli land confiscation, demolition of Palestinian homes, wanton arrests and torture of Palestinian civilians.

The Same Question

Speaking of these injustices, I invariably heard the same question, “How come I didn’t know this?” Or someone might ask, “But I haven’t read about that in my newspaper.” To these church audiences, I related my own learning experience, that of seeing hordes of U.S. correspondents covering a relatively tiny state. I pointed out that I had not seen so many reporters in world capitals such as Beijing, Moscow, London, Tokyo, Paris. Why, I asked, did a small state with a 1980 population of only four million warrant more reporters than China, with a billion people?

I also linked this query with my findings that The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post — and most of our nation’s print media — are owned and/or controlled by Jews supportive of Israel. It was for this reason, I deduced, that they sent so many reporters to cover Israel — and to do so largely from the Israeli point of view.

My learning experiences also included coming to realize how easily I could lose a Jewish friend if I criticized the Jewish state. I could with impunity criticize France, England, Russia, even the United States. And any aspect of life in America. But not the Jewish state. I lost more Jewish friends than one after the publication of Journey to Jerusalem — all sad losses for me and one, perhaps, saddest of all.

In the 1960s and 1970s, before going to the Middle East, I had written about the plight of blacks in a book entitled Soul Sister, and the plight of American Indians in a book entitled Bessie Yellowhair, and the problems endured by undocumented workers crossing from Mexico in The Illegals. These books had come to the attention of the “mother” of The New York Times, Mrs. Arthur Hays Sulzberger.

Her father had started the newspaper, then her husband ran it, and in the years that I knew her, her son was the publisher. She invited me to her fashionable apartment on Fifth Avenue for lunches and dinner parties. And, on many occasions, I was a weekend guest at her Greenwich, Conn., home.

She was liberal-minded and praised my efforts to speak for the underdog, even going so far in one letter to say, “You are the most remarkable woman I ever knew.” I had little concept that from being buoyed so high I could be dropped so suddenly when I discovered — from her point of view — the “wrong” underdog.

As it happened, I was a weekend guest in her spacious Connecticut home when she read bound galley proofs of Journey to Jerusalem. As I was leaving, she handed the galley proofs back with a saddened look: “My dear, have you forgotten the Holocaust?” She felt that what happened in Nazi Germany to Jews several decades earlier should silence any criticism of the Jewish state. She could focus on a holocaust of Jews while negating a modern day holocaust of Palestinians.

I realized, quite painfully, that our friendship was ending. Iphigene Sulzberger had not only invited me to her home to meet her famous friends but, also at her suggestion, The Times had requested articles. I wrote op-ed articles on various subjects including American blacks, American Indians as well as undocumented workers. Since Mrs. Sulzberger and other Jewish officials at the Times highly praised my efforts to help these groups of oppressed peoples, the dichotomy became apparent: most “liberal” U.S. Jews stand on the side of all poor and oppressed peoples save one — the Palestinians.

How handily these liberal Jewish opinion-molders tend to diminish the Palestinians, to make them invisible, or to categorize them all as “terrorists.”

Interestingly, Iphigene Sulzberger had talked to me a great deal about her father, Adolph S. Ochs. She told me that he was not one of the early Zionists. He had not favored the creation of a Jewish state.

Yet, increasingly, American Jews have fallen victim to Zionism, a nationalistic movement that passes for many as a religion. While the ethical instructions of all great religions — including the teachings of Moses, Muhammad and Christ — stress that all human beings are equal, militant Zionists take the position that the killing of a non-Jew does not count.

Over five decades now, Zionists have killed Palestinians with impunity. And in the 1996 shelling of a U.N. base in Qana, Lebanon, the Israelis killed more than 100 civilians sheltered there. As an Israeli journalist, Arieh Shavit, explains of the massacre, “We believe with absolute certitude that right now, with the White House in our hands, the Senate in our hands and The New York Times in our hands, the lives of others do not count the same way as our own.”

Israelis today, explains the anti-Zionist Jew Israel Shahak, “are not basing their religion on the ethics of justice. They do not accept the Old Testament as it is written. Rather, religious Jews turn to the Talmud. For them, the Talmudic Jewish laws become “the Bible.” And the Talmud teaches that a Jew can kill a non-Jew with impunity.

In the teachings of Christ, there was a break from such Talmudic teachings. He sought to heal the wounded, to comfort the downtrodden.

The danger, of course, for U.S. Christians is that having made an icon of Israel, we fall into a trap of condoning whatever Israel does — even wanton murder — as orchestrated by God.

Yet, I am not alone in suggesting that the churches in the United States represent the last major organized support for Palestinian rights. This imperative is due in part to our historic links to the Land of Christ and in part to the moral issues involved with having our tax dollars fund Israeli-government-approved violations of human rights.

While Israel and its dedicated U.S. Jewish supporters know they have the president and most of Congress in their hands, they worry about grassroots America — the well-meaning Christians who care for justice. Thus far, most Christians were unaware of what it was they didn't know about Israel. They were indoctrinated by U.S. supporters of Israel in their own country and when they traveled to the Land of Christ most all did so under Israeli sponsorship. That being the case, it was unlikely a Christian ever met a Palestinian or learned what caused the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

This is gradually changing, however. And this change disturbs the Israelis. As an example, delegates attending a Christian Sabeel conference in Bethlehem earlier this year said they were harassed by Israeli security at the Tel Aviv airport.

“They asked us,” said one delegate, “Why did you use a Palestinian travel agency? Why didn't you use an Israeli agency?” The interrogation was so extensive and hostile that Sabeel leaders called a special session to brief the delegates on how to handle the harassment. Obviously, said one delegate, “The Israelis have a policy to discourage us from visiting the Holy Land except under their sponsorship. They don't want Christians to start learning all they have never known about Israel.”

Israel bought a custom Lear Jet for Jerry Falwell back in 1979 and the other televangelists took notice.

Now damn near all of those slick dicks on TV are bellowing about how Israel is our friend and how the Bible commands us to take care of Israel .

They preach from multi-million dollar castles/churches, wear custom fitted silk suits and fly around in private jets, preaching the Gospel.

Not one of them has an inkling of what Christianity is really about and hardly any preach from the Sermons on the Mount, AKA the “Beatitudes.”

Israel is NOT our friend and is pissed that we buy oil from the Arabs and at one time, the Persians.

Israel is the world's #1 terrorist state, but the Zionist owned MSM is always scaring us with tales about North Korea or Iran, when in reality, it's Israel's 300+ nukes and their Sampson option that is the real threat to world peace.

June 14, 2009 at 9:47 amJP*Greg

That's right, and what's more, it was Jews who invented nukes in the first place. They brought this abomination into the world. Of course! No one else is Satanically Evil enough to do that. The dread you feel when you think about nukes is Satan's shadow falling on you, so therefore it could only have come from the Jews, Satan's #1 knob-jobbers on earth.

It was two Jews (Leo Szilard and Einstein) who first proposed nukes in a letter to FDR.

Another Jew (Oppenheimer) led the team consisting of mostly European-Jewish physicists that actually developed the bomb. This team was riddled with commie Jew traitors, of course (Hitler fuckin warned us!), so naturally they turned right around and told their commie Jew buds in Russia everything.

They greased two cities in Japan, killing hundreds of thousands of civilians horribly, just to see what their new boom-boom toy would do to them. Also to inform intelligentsia worldwide that they had this thing, and that they really are NUTS enough to use it. Wow, and then they have the incredible NERVE to blubber and snivel about Mengele! Mengele was like a kid playing with Tinker Toys compared to them.

After the war, another Jew (Teller) tweaked this invention into a true doomsday weapon. As he did so, more commie Jews handed the secrets away to Russia, of course, enabling commie Jew Russia to leap-frog us in the development of thermonukes. Meanwhile, Teller himself was helping Israel launch its nuclear weapons program.

It's good to see you acknowledge Christ's original, revolutionary meaning.

Greg-

Is it just me, or do “televangelists” all look like ghetto pimps? I mean seriously, where do these guys buy their suits? Their toupees? All they are missing is platform shoes man!!! What is the deal with the woman with PINK HAIR? Have you seen that?

They want to make some “Holy Land Experience” amusement park in Israel...Jews must be laughing their asses off at that one!!! How many shekels will benefit the local economy? How many JEWS will visit that theme park? Comparatively few I would guess, but do JEWS OWN IT??? Surely they own the land underneath it, don't they? God said so, right? Christianity, the global Disney franchise, CHA-CHING!!! $$$

Will there be a “Robotic Rabbi” exhibit? Put in a shekel, and the damn thing sings and pounds its head on a mock-up of the “wailing wall” LMAO!!!

JP- all I know about nuke invention is Oppenheimer, and what I read about the “Manhattan Project.” I believe he is even quoted as saying, “I have become the destroyer of worlds.”- have to look that up again.

Speaking of “Oppenheimers” in general, don’t they actually own the DeBeers diamond cartel? Are they related? Who knows. Why do Jews always name themselves after precious metals? Neil DIAMOND, Sarah Silverman, Goldman Sachs, etc. Hmm.

Didn’t Christ give them a choice not to worship “Mammon?” It would appear they didn’t LISTEN, since they actually NAME themselves after same, or do my eyes deceive me?

Jesus Christ clearly stated that His Kingdom is NOT OF THIS WORLD, hello? Isn’t that the TRUE “bottom line?” To me, JP...that is the crux of the whole discussion about religion in general. If you don’t believe in an afterlife, if you don’t believe you have a “spirit,” then all talk about “religion” is meaningless isn’t it?

I have a spirit by God...and it feels like a star spinning in my chest all the time. It’s ETERNAL bud, and when my terrestrial life is over, very soon for all of us compared to eternity, I hope and pray that Christ will say that I have a place wherever He is.

Your local Talmudic Rabbi, Shlomo Frankenstein (no pun intended LMAO!!!) says that Jesus Christ is currently in a pot of boiling excrement in “hell” for disobeying the rabbis. OK...let’s see what’s what...SANHEDRIN RABBI!!! Show me!!! If Christ is actually in HELL, boiling in a big pot of excrement, let’s go and check it out, otherwise shut the hell up, so to speak (ahem LOL!!!)

Marsh 😊

WHY JP,

WHY oh WHY...do JEWS constantly make MOVIES about EXCREMENT? I just saw a brief glimpse of some major Hollywood picture about freaking DOGS on millionaire toilets, man!!! Here:

<http://www.imdb.com/title/tt0785006/fullcredits>

I HAVE TO RANT JP!!! I watched about 3 minutes of it, and they had this elaborate system set up so that DOGS could whizz and defecate in a “palace for dogs” complete with an automated fecal disposal system...what the HELL??? An “All-star cast” of “celebrity voices” were all on board...oh yeah...wow.

REALITY CHECK:

You know, I’ve heard stories about Israeli soldiers spreading their feces on the walls of houses they have taken over in Palestine, after MURDERING the rightful inhabitants of course...

I’ve also heard stories about ACTUAL hotel owners in Sweden having to host Israeli tourist teenagers who DO THE SAME FREAKING THING!!! The hotel owners say the Jewish kids party in the halls all night, throw trash everywhere, whizz and crap on their sheets, destroy the furniture, and generally aggravate the other normal people at the hotel...all the while disappearing before the next morning when the bill is due.

YEAH JEWS...when the FECES HITS THE FAN, it blows right back in your FACES, doesn’t it? Where is HELL, RABBI? A boiling pot of excrement that Jesus Christ is supposedly in right now?

“Rabbis” LMAO!!! “Hell” hmm. Has anybody taken a look at your local Chassidic Rabbi? That is one UGLY SPECIMEN of HUMANITY. These critters couldn’t get laid ANYWHERE naturally, but the law and media are on their side...what a hoot!!!

HOW in the world does this butt-ugly Jew "Gene Simmons" aka "Chaim Witz" claim to be "God's Chosen" and denigrate Gentiles who can actually DO THINGS. Why is he in my face on the Talmudvision? He's jealous. He knows what he is. Put on more makeup scumbag!!! You need all you can get. Change your name!!! Dwell in Hellyweird, because that's the "Empire of your Own" that Neal Gabler wrote about many years ago.

<http://www.amazon.com/Empire-Their-Own-Invented-Hollywood/dp/0385265573>

Their travelling gypsy carnival freak show never seems to find a permanent home, does it? Keep passports handy...where will they flee to next?

You know...this actor "Ron Pearlman" (who makes me seriously question if evolution is true LOL!!!) says he was actually IN a travelling carnival as a child...well, well, well. He also spent 3 hours a day dressing up as "HELLBOY," or the "BEAST" in "Beauty and the Beast." Is this a career?

HELL? HELLBOY? Hmm. This critter spends 3 hours a day transforming himself into some fantasy character in an illusionary world. Can anyone call that a "JOB?" I guess so...it's about as real as the Fed Note in your pocket buddy. LOL!!!

JP are you catching my drift?

Yes, Marsh, very good, Oppenheimer the demonic kike nihilist monster did make conniving snivelly noises to make like he had a conscience AFTER THE FACT, when it totally didn't matter anyway, mhm, uh-huh. Who fucking cares? Gullible goy saps. Could Oppy the kike have made a more PREDICTABLE move? NO!

Anyway, here's that whole thing again. Maybe it won't get 'occultically negated' this time.

If you look at a televangelist, you can clearly see the fakery in his eyes. You can see the low intelligence — the look is the same in all of them. These are low IQ alcoholic trash that have been cleaned up to “look good on camera.” They are liars. Really good ones. So good that they even begin to believe their own lies.

Jews control Christian broadcasting. That's why all you see are sleazy Zionist heretics.

Like most Christians, I thought for along time that I “had” to support Israel and the “Jews” because they are the “chosen people” and that, even if I didn't support every policy of Israel, I had to be a “Zionist” because the “chosen people” have a God-given right to that land.

I thank my Lord that after all these years, I have finally discovered the Biblical truth concerning Israel.

The truth is that most historical evidence shows that the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic and Celtic people compromise the “lost ten tribes of Israel” i.e. the Israelites. The modern language most similar to ancient Hebrew is Welsh.

95% of “Jews” today are actually Mongolian-Turks of the Khazar empire who converted to Judaism in the 8th century. They have not a drop of semitic blood, so it's ironic that they call their enemies “anti-semites.”

This is NOT about racial superiority, merely about truth in history. “There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.”

Judaism is not the religion of the Old Testament which Jesus referred to as “the Law and the Prophets” – it is the oral tradition of the Pharisees whom Jesus referred to as the “synagogue of satan.” Over the years this false teaching known as the Talmud became mixed with Babylonian mysticism.

I don't know if I've explained this very well but basically it boils down to this: the barbaric occupation of the Holy Land by imposters claiming to be descendants of Abraham and the so-called “holocaust” which preceded it are the greatest hoaxes every perpetrated against mankind.
