Doing the job America's mainstream media Democrat propagandists won't do, Globe has in its January 12 issue a special report on Former Senator-select Obama's birth in Kenya.

Globe, "Shocking Charge: Obama Presidency Illegal," Jan. 12, 2008, 30-31.

And now, the Internet is abuzz with shocking charges that three different people have gotten their hands on a Kenyan birth certificate for Obama.

The document, supposedly "certified with an embossed seal" and "witness signatures," says America's next commander [communist prevaricator] in chief was born at Coast Province General Hospital in Mombasa at 7:24 p.m. on Aug. 4, 1961.

Also, Former Senator-select Obama's fabricated "State of Hawaii" "Certification of Live Birth" that shows no doctor's signature or baby's birth weight is as phony as he is.

Globe quotes the claim that "in Hawaii in 1961 'it was possible — even routine — to register foreign births' and, if that was the case, it would 'disqualify (Former Senator-select Obama) from serving'" as president.

The magazine quotes as well Alan Keyes's red-flag observation that "not one single person has come forward — not a doctor, not a nurse, not a hospital administrator nor anyone else — to state that he or she was present" at Former Senator-select Obama's birth in any of Hawaii's hospitals.

But there is at least one person who has come forward to state that she was present at his birth in one of Kenya's hospitals: Former Senator-select Obama's own grandmother.

Reports have also circulated that Obama's paternal grandmother, Sarah Hussein Obama, has stated that she "was in the delivery room in Kenya" when America's next chief executive [lying phony] was born.

It's even common knowledge in Former Senator-select Obama's birth country.

[A]n affidavit from noted African evangelist the Rev. Kweli Shuhubia [claims] it's "common knowledge" in Kenya the Democrat from Illinois was born in Mombasa.

Speculation was further fueled when Kenya's ambassador to the United States Peter Ogego told Detroit radio hosts that Obama's birthplace in Mombasa "is already a well-known attraction." ...

"If you [listen to the \[ambassador's\] call in its entirety](#), you will find it was very obvious we were all talking about the ~~President-elect~~ [Former Senator-select] and not his father," says [host Mike] Clark.

It's common knowledge, too, that if these same claims were being made about a Republican president-elect, every ~~mainstream~~ ~~mediot~~ Democrat propagandist outfit in the nation would preempt everything else in order to bring you live, 24/7 coverage with "expert analyses," "Constitution in Crisis™" updates, undercover "investigations," and "outraged citizen" interviews regarding those claims.

Indeed. Wake up America.

CAST YOUR VOTE:

WAS Barack Obama actually born in Kenya and therefore not legally eligible to serve as President?

Here's a chance for you to have your say!

If you're convinced he is NOT a natural born citizen, e-mail GLOBE at NoCitizenObama@globefl.com

GLOBE will compile your votes and publish them in a future issue.

Here's why no Blair House —

MESSAGE TO EVERY MEMBER OF CONGRESS:

When counting the electoral votes, either Congress finds by 1/8/09 that Obama, not being an Article II "natural born citizen", fails to qualify as President whereupon Biden becomes the full fledged President under 3 USC 19 (free to pick his own VP such as Hillary) or thereafter defers to the Supreme Court to enjoin Obama's inauguration with Biden becoming only Acting President under the 20th Amendment until a new President is duly determined.

The preferable choice, at least for the Democrats, should seem obvious.

Ted @Saturday, January 03, 2009 9:32:00 PM

I believe Acting President-elect Biden has to follow the constitution's Amend. XX, Sec. 3 provision: "if the President elect shall have failed to qualify [before the time fixed for the beginning of his term], then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified." Which means he'll be acting president until noon, January 20, 2013.

So the official roll of our presidents would look something like--

U.S. Presidents

- 1st = Washington (1789-1797)
- 2nd = Adams, J. (1797-1801)
- ...
- 40th = Reagan (1981-1989)
- 41st = Bush, G.H.W. (1989-1993)
- 42nd = Clinton (1993-2001)
- 43rd = Bush, G.W. (2001-2009)
- 44th = *to be elected in 2012 and, if qualified, sworn in in 2013

 U.S. Acting President

- 1st = Biden (2009-2013)

Or would it be the one below?

U.S. Presidents

- 1st = Washington (1789-1797)
- ...
- 44th = no one (2009-2013; Biden, acting)
- 45th = to be elected in 2012 and, if qualified, sworn in in 2013
