STOP. 7/15/2009 It wasn't that long ago that people bought stuff they didn't need with money they didn't have. Easy credit and houses-as-ATM's fueled consumerism to the boiling point. In hindsight, observers have described this behavior as: "aspirational shopping", or buying beyond your economic circumstances. What does this have to do with the stock market? Everything. U.S. Dollar: Be Careful Trading on the News

7/9/2009 If you try and trade forex based on what you read in the news, more often than not you are simply running with the herd. That's not always a bad thing, because the herd goes with the trend, and we all know that "the trend is your friend." But there is one big problem... Read More

My fax to Congressman Obey (Wisconsin-7)

On July 15th, 2009 ryanj says:
 Here's my fax to Congressman Obey, any help with how to improve it in the future is appreciated. I know they say to be courteous but at a couple points my anger kind of showed. :-)

Dear Representative Obey,
 I am writing to express my desire for you to co-sponsor HR 1207. As you may know, this bill was introduced by Rep. Ron Paul of Texas in February of 2009 and provides for a full and complete audit of the federal reserve. Since its' inception in 1913, the dealings of the federal reserve have been shrouded in secrecy. As you may have noticed in the events of the past year, secrecy and deceit in our financial institutions rarely ends well. A sponsorship of 1207 would help shine light on the murky dealings of the Fed. Unlike farcical legislation like cap and trade, this bill actually has the support of the congress- and more importantly- the people. It currently has over 270 co-sponsors. Unfortunately, Wisconsin is lagging in the co-sponsor category as yourself, Congressman Kind, and Congresswoman Moore have yet to sign on. Frankly, that is rather embarrassing as Wisconsin has always been quite progressive- all the way back to fighting Bob LaFollete in the early 20th century. I look forward to hearing from you and seeing your name show up as a cosponsor. In lieu of that, I look forward to voting you out of office in 2010.
 Yours in Liberty,
 Ryan Johansen

On July 24th we will be taking the fight to our Congressman

On July 15th, 2009 BaneMaler says:
 In our most recent effort to finally get the only Kansas holdout in the House on board, we will have a rally and petition action at Congressman Dennis Moore's office. As many of you may know he also is a key member of the FC and a Blue Dog so his support can also serve to bring in more converts. We have hundreds of signatures to present to his offices and if you're in the area we would love your support and promotion of this event. I will upload some footage of the event.

Send us some well wishes and ideas regardless on our FB page.

Great work.

On July 15th, 2009 SimpleSam says:
 Wisconsin, Indiana and Illinois are huge holdouts so definitely get right on them. Rep. Obey in Wisconsin also has yet to co-sponsor.
