One suspect, Ziad Homsy, has admitted to being tasked to organize the assassination of the secretary general. While "we are witnessing the uncovering of Israeli espionage networks...", the Israelis thought "let's implement this plot against Hezbollah," Nasrallah continued with regards to the article. He said the report deliberately coincided with the June 7 Lebanese elections which, he said both the US and Israel feared an overwhelming resistance triumph, the Israeli military maneuvers that began on May 31 and the growing international expectation from Tel Aviv to submit to a two-state solution and give the right of the Palestinian refugees to return. "Der Spiegel is ready for this mission" which he said was, on a broader scale aimed at "creating an Arab-Iranian conflict and a Sunni-Shia conflict." Within hours of the appearance of the report, the Israeli media headlined the story and Israeli Foreign Minister, Avigdor Lieberman, and Defense Minister, Ehud Barak, called for the International Tribunal's issuance of an arrest warrant against Nasrallah. "They made the accusations. They made the judgment. And they want to call for punishment." Addressing thousands of his supporters on the occasion of the Resistance and Liberation Day, which marks Hezbollah's liberation of southern Lebanon in the year 2000 from 22 years of Israeli occupation, the Hezbollah chief concluded with an appeal to the international community to "punish Israel" before Tel Aviv could bring its conspiracy to fruition. http://www.presstv.ir/detail.aspx?id=95 ... =351020203 Remember Rachel Corrie
