Spying for Israel:One down,many more to go.

15Jul09

Judge Rashid Mizher of Lebanon has ordered today, July 15th 2009, a death sentence for Marwan Kamel al Faqih, the spy and son of the spy who worked for none other than Israel.

Judge Mizher has issued an arrest warrant against Faqih, reason being he had been spying for the Apartheid State of Israel – And if this was not enough he was also supplying Israel with confidential information about the Lebanese resistance group Hezbollah, the Lebanese Armed Forces and the Internal Security Forces in Lebanon. Marwan Kamel al Faqih is also being accused of visiting the Palestinian occupied territories, “meeting with Mossad officials and training to use advanced communication devices to contact Tel Aviv.”

Starting in 2005 Faqih entered the Palestinian occupied territories for the first time through Belgium to finish off the adulterous relations with Mossad. He supplied Mossad with confidential information on Hezbollah, members of Hezbollah and officials, “even those who were from his family” according to one report. If this was not enough, Mr. Faqih identified specific targets for Israel during the July 2006 war and caused them to be attacked – he gave away targets included schools, institutions, gas stations, mosques, cafes, hospitals, playgrounds in many places in the South of Lebanon including Nabatieh, Haroof, Shoukin, Kfar Jawz, and Kfar Remman.

The audacity of Mr. Faqih seems to be never ending once you are able to read the full story. He was trusted to such an extent by Mossad that during the war in July in 2006 (wherein Israel killed over 1,200 Lebanese citizens) an Israeli officer called him to leave his home because they would be shelling a building for a family close by. After the war Faqih was given monetary compensation for the damages his own home received from the shelling of his neighbor’s residence.

Then in 2007, Faqih entered again the Palestinian occupied territories where he was transferred by Israeli officers to the Kiryat Shmona settlement. There, Israeli officers called him to plant small cameras in the gas station he administers in the South, between Zebdine and Nabatieh, to record pictures for the cars of the Resistance’s members. Mr. Faqih was more than happy to comply with the demands.

The final was made to the occupied territories was in September of 2008 when the Israelis asked him about the works of selling cars in Lebanon and how have them entered into the country.

Faqih was detained on January 5th of 2009, wherein he had still been dealing with the illegal state of Israel. He has been sentenced to death, and rightfully so.

“A nation can survive its fools, and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known and carries his banner openly...”
