Warning! We're in the false-flag red zone for 911-2B

Here is the warning I just sent to my list:

Greetings,

As "9/11 conspiracy theorists" go I'm not much of an alarmist, but I do think that we are in the red zone right now for another potential 9/11 style false-flag event. Here's why.

Israel and its allegedly American cheerleaders are desperate to attack Iran ASAP, while Pentagon hawks are yearning to escalate the war in Afghanistan. In other words, the folks who brought us 9/11 and the 9/11 wars want a momentous escalation of those wars. And they want it NOW.

But the American people aren't on board. Polls show that the war on Afghanistan is more unpopular than ever. And the level of destruction unleashed by a Zio-American attack on Iran would make our current economic chaos look like the Golden Age.

To get people to accept this kind of massive escalation, another major false-flag event demonizing Muslims, and thereby legitimizing escalations against the Taliban and the Islamic Republic of Iran, may be in the works.

The Ft. Hood probable false-flag attack (see Jerry Mazza's article) seems to have been timed to coincide with the decision to try (the individual claimed to be) Khalid Sheikh Mohammed, the 9/11 patsy-in-chief. All of this appears to have been orchestrated to evoke memories of 9/11 and reinforce the official story-- a necessary preliminary to any 911-2B. In other words, they may be softening us up for something big.

Remember folks, what we're dealing with here is a war on Islam and Muslims launched and sustained by a whole series of false-flag events, not just 9/11-anthrax but also the attacks on Bali, Madrid, London, Mumbai, and now (apparently) Ft. Hood. There is no reason to think these people are going to stop any time soon.

Please consider getting proactive by stockpiling "Inside Job" plastic roll banner signs, to be publicly deployed in the event of a major false-flag event. I still have a couple of rolls of these, so please email me if you want some. Also, don't forget that you can get ten copies of my book Questioning the War on Terror for only $50 to pass around.

Thanks for listening, and keep up your efforts for truth and justice.

You forgot about the fake Iranian boat full of munitions that the Israelis boarded, complete with munitions clearly marked (with the defunct insignia of an Iranian government agency that changed its name twenty years ago.)

Jimmy Walter, whose monumental contribution to the 9/11 truth movement isn't remembered as often as it should be, writes:

Add these facts

The economy is crashing! They have told the people it is not. They need a patsy to blame. The people don't understand economics. They only understand unemployment and paychecks. They will kick out Obama and the Democrats if the economy gets worse. It will definitely get worse!!!! If the Republicans win the next election, they will have to take the blame since they can't fix it either. Since both parties are really the same - Republican - They have to have a patsy!!!

The swine flu has fizzled. That won't work now.

While everyone was a little shocked by Ft Hood, that was all - just a little. And I don't think Arabs will be blamed for that. I think the army and government will be. It was not civilians. The bottom line is that is neither enough nor german to attacking Iran or the hurting the economy. Really relates to the school shootings more than Iraq or Iran.

So what is left?

It is always dangerous to guess what is in another person's bag. But the only thing I see big enough that is left on the table and satisfies all the conspirators is a terrorist attack, on us by our own governments.

I will not even try to guess where or how. They have too many options.

Kevin,

Webster is obviously at this best dissecting a false flag op. Tarpley surpasses himself with his latest, "Major Hasan Of Fort Hood: A Patsy In A Drill Gone Live?"

About Me

Kevin Barrett

I'm the author of Questioning the War on Terror: A Primer for Obama Voters;

Truth Jihad; A Guide to Mysterious San Francisco; and editor of 9/11 and American Empire v.2, and have taught Arabic, Islamic Studies, French, American Civilization and others subjects. Widely regarded as the world's leading Muslim 9/11 truth activist (for what that's worth) I spent 2006-2008 as the only talk show host featured on all three leading patriot radio networks (GCN, RBN, and WTPRN). I ran for Congress in Wisconsin's 3rd District in 2008:

There's so much in the article and the case is strong for an underground network or farm club of grooming new players or patsies for the major leagues.

I hope you can explore with Webster his insights such as "Cho, the Virginia Tech gunman is the new model of deranged or brainwashed mass killer."

It's an important article. It goes far beyond what anyone else has offered.

Jimmy Walter adds:

RED ALERT - Housing starts fall sharply - The economy is toast - they must act now!!!

They cannot afford to watch the market dive before Christmas and expect the economy to be anything but pure collapse.

If they don't do their false flag or epidemic or whatever now, the economy is still toast.

Hold your gold, hold or sell your dollars. If the economy is toast, then there will be deflation so the dollars will not hyperinflate. The republicans and conservative democrats will never allow real give aways, the only thing that can stop it, until it is way too late.

So either collapse, false flag, or war - red alert

Webster Tarpley weighs in:

On Nov 18, 2009, at 1:22 PM, Webster Tarpley wrote:

Dear Kevin -

I was too busy for the radio in the last few days trying to help get the Dec. 12 WH antiwar demo off the ground, but I could come on in the near future if you need me.

The Obama-Brzezinski project may be faltering in the original form - the green coup in Iran has failed, A-jad is going with Russia, and other Zbig tricks are not working well. Plus, geopolitics is being overtaken by the dollar crash. Note the Major Hasan case, the KSM trial, the seizure of the "Iranian Bank Melli" mosques, and also the Islamophobic blather of Pat Robertson, who owns the new GOP gov of Virginia, the reactionary McDonnell. Don't forget Zazi, whose mosque is about a block from where I grew up in Flushing Queens.

I am now guessing that the growing ruling class direction may well become what I call OPERATION SAFE HAVEN - a coup in Saudi Arabia and/or the Gulf emirates and/or a military attack on Iran, leading to a war zone in the Gulf and the blocking of Hormuz, which hits China, Japan, and Europe the hardest, cutting their oil off. See especially the Iran vs Saudi military clashes over YEMEN, where the sinister Jane Harman has just visited.

<http://www.washingtonexaminer.com/opinion/columns/OpEd-Contributor/War-brewing-between-8516668-69762217.html>

Imagine playing the Saudis against A-jad -- a triumph of Brzezinskian manipulation ! Any of these scenarios would suffice. Above all, world panic means all hot money flies to the alleged safe haven of the dollar and US T-bonds. This would weaken the euro the yen and the RMB of China. But the ruble would benefit.

All guesswork so far, but Wall St and the City will have to do something fairly soon, I should think.

We need a big intel job to get out in front of them this time. What do your informed sources say?

WGT

My response:

Excellent points here, Webster.

It seems to me that a prerequisite for Operation Safe Haven would be a much bigger false flag operation than Ft. Hood. Hence all of the Islamophobic "softening up."

I don't really have any good sources in the Gulf. Morocco is my kingdom.

The Guitta article is interesting. It fits with a "Netanyahu gets his U.S war on Iran" scenario. Seems to me that the neocons Likud operatives never went away.
