Days of Rage, Oil Prices, and the Suez Canal

Kurt Nimmo

Infowars.com

February 3, 2011

Bloomberg warns today that an act of sabotage or a decision by a new regime – possibly headed up by the Muslim Brotherhood – to close the canal and its oil pipeline to punish supporters of Egyptian dictator Hosni Mubarak could send oil prices through the stratosphere.

Egyptian troops currently guard the canal and its adjacent Suez-Mediterranean oil pipeline but that does not mean the flow of oil – more than 1.7 millions barrels per day – cannot be shut down.

About 2.5 percent of global oil production moves through Egypt via the Suez Canal and the Suez-Mediterranean Pipeline, according to Goldman Sachs.

From 1967 until 1975, Egypt kept the canal closed in response to Israel's seizure of Arab territory, forcing tankers to travel around the Cape of Good Hope.

Earlier today, investors increased bets that oil prices will likely increase as much as \$250 a barrel on concern the unrest in Egypt will shut down the flow of oil through the Suez Canal and spread to Saudi Arabia.

Lindsey Williams and Bob Chapman on the Alex Jones Show, January 28, 2011.

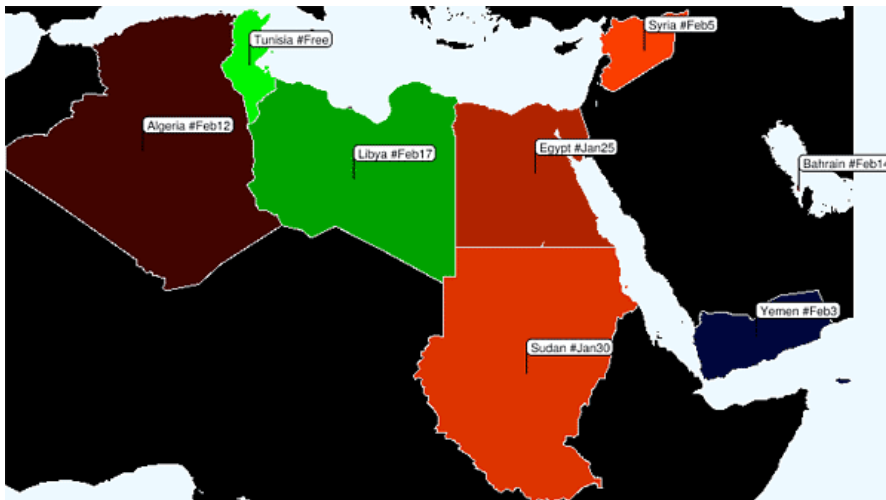

On January 28, Lindsey Williams told Alex Jones the situation unfolding in Egypt is a carefully engineered event instigated by the global elite as part of a plan to bankrupt the United States and send shock waves through the global economy.

In December, Williams told Jones that his insider connections said the price of oil will soon skyrocket to between $150-200 per barrel and this price increase will result in gasoline in the range of $4-5 per gallon.

Williams became a friend and trusted confidant of oil industry executives while serving as chaplain for them and their construction crews building the Alaska pipeline in the 1970s.

Market analysts are unsure how the current crisis will impact oil and the global economy. Robert Halver, from Baader Bank, compared Egypt to a raging volcano. He argued that the recent developments are ominous. Halver said that many experts fear the crisis may expand to other Arab states, which would lead to a decrease in oil supplies and an inevitable rise in prices, as Lindsey Williams predicted last year.

Several Arab states have announced plans to launch “Days of Rage” across the Middle East and Africa. See the map below for details.

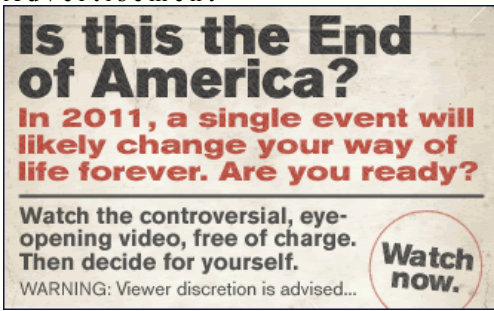

“When the revolution comes, everyone will be prepared. At least in Northern Africa and the Middle East, where upsurges of optimism from the increasingly successful revolts in Tunisia and Egypt have led other nations’ oppositions to plan dates for their own,” writes Jason Ditz.

“Activists looking for democratic reforms in Syria and Sudan have begun to organize on Facebook and other social media outlets,” Earth Times reported on January 31. “A smaller group in impoverished Yemen also formed on the social media website.”

Algeria experienced five days of protests late last month and tens of thousands took to the streets in Yemen. Similar scenes played out in Jordan and elsewhere. “Undoubtedly, from Algeria to Yemen, the protesters have been emboldened and inspired by the Tunisian example,” the New Straits Times reported on January 29. The Tunisian protest and the downfall of the 23-year-rule of Zine El Abidine Ben Ali began after a young Tunisian set himself ablaze.

It is now obvious the timely emergence of ElBaradei and the Muslim Brotherhood on the chaotic political scene in Egypt was orchestrated by the global elite, as alluded to by Steven A. Cook, writing for the Council on Foreign Relation’s Foreign Affairs.

“The classic gambits of class-warfare, religion, and race seem to be tools well-oiled and working as smoothly as ever in the hands of the globalists as they dismantle their old ally in Egypt and prepare to replace him with their new man, Mohamed ElBaradei,” writes Tony Cartalucci. “If it is true that the Muslim Brotherhood is also a western intelligence front, it is no surprise then that they have come to support ElBaradei’s ‘National Front for Change’ or that they are fomenting similar unrest in Jordan, Yemen, Saudi Arabia and beyond, all with the Brookings Institute, CFR and other globalists’ gleeful encouragement.”

As Cartalucci notes, the tip off should be ElBaradei’s presence on the Board of Trustees of the Zbigniew Brzezinski/George Soros globalist think-tank, the International Crisis Group.

Stock up with Fresh Food that lasts with eFoodsDirect \(Ad\)

Mohamed ElBaradei, then literally sitting on the International Crisis Group’s Board of Trustees with the likes of George Soros, would not only be a trusted candidate to sow instability throughout Egypt, but would make an equally trustworthy leader of a pliable proxy regime to turn against Iran, Russia, and China. An ElBaradei controlled Egypt could equally be turned against disruptive members of the other globalist pet project Egypt is conveniently positioned to deal with, the African Union. And last but not least, Egypt controls the Suez Canal. Greater control over Egypt means greater control over the passage of freight through the canal.

ElBaradei and the Muslim Brotherhood, at the behest of the globalists, may indeed close down the Suez Canal, as some observers fear, and send the price of oil skyrocketing into outer space as long predicted by Lindsey Williams and others.

Ben Berskanke deserves to be drawn and quartered. He can choke on a genetically modified peach pit for all I care.

I would pay $1000 in fiat bank notes for a front row seat to watch him and the Allan Greenscams of the world take a bubble bath in a lake of fire.

The end of fractional reserve banking and the end of the entities that run it is possible, if we want it.

I'm currently, watching the Alex Jones -vs- Peter Joseph “debate”..

Alex should grow the fuck up! I don't even know why he does his radio show anymore?

Fear-mongering is big buisness, these days, right? That's why some moron like Lyndsey Williams gets so much airtime, and someone like Joseph gets treated like shit!

One talks about his “elite” source is feeding him this script of predictions- because after all, if you are rich you MUST be getting some memo from the “Illuminati”, right? ..Some evil madman in some underground cave, stroking a bald cat, and laughing maniacally MUHAHAHAHA!!!

Yes. Or you can call a 6 dollar/min., to get as accurate a forecast of the future.

Food prices are going to go up? Gas prices are going to go up? NO S#%$!!!!, eh?

the world is in the process of global revolt/revolution, being aggravated and orchestrated by the globalists and banksters to implement their new world order/one world government/one world religion gold and silver prices are flat and the world is on the precipice of WWII? huh?
if there has EVER been a 100% glaringly obvious manipulation of gold and silver prices by the PPT and banksters... its right now unfortunately the banksters and speculators will bid oil up to $150/$6 a gallon
"I want liberty ..I want my freedom..for me and especially for my family" – Alex Jones
.....well AJ..there is a solution that N.Dakota has in place and has a 3% unemployment rate unfortunately I've heard the fed is still involved in N.Dakota state banking system and THAT is no dam good and must be retooled and tweaked and 100% desperate from the fed..

WE MUST TAKE AWAY THE POWER AND CONTROL OF OUR MONEY BY THE CORRUPT PARASITIC DEBT MONEY MONEY CHANGERS[banksters] at the non-federal no-reserve and IMF and their immoral usury/interest on the phony money they make from thin air.. we CAN take their power away at the state level with state banking..all 50 states implement state banking and the fed is abolished..vamoosh..gone you want your freedom? you want your liberty?
THIS IS HOW WE GET IT BACK!

.....the 50 states CAN print new debt free notes/bills and Congress coins pre-1965 90%silver coinage and 95% copper pennies, and we peel our price structure back to a dollar with the buying power of a 1913 dollar, before the non-federal no-reserve debased our currency out of 98% of its buying power..

.....the solution..

the state banks charge 2% interest/usury on loans, but instead of the interest on the money being given to non-federal no-reserve private banksters and into the banksters pockets and bank accounts, the money goes into the states treasury/coffers to pay ALL the states bills and run ALL programs .....taxes can then be cut drastically in many,many areas as the people will pay half the taxes they now pay..
gold can still be money alongside the new currency as it is now and of course coinage will be silver again..
small business can compete again with the big box stores with their 3rd world crap slave made merchandise and product..
.....manufacturing will return in spades and America can once again lead the world again in innovation..
we will need to implement temporary tariffs until we get back to being the manufacturing powerhouse of the world..
the Pentagon/military industrial complex should be shut down or drastically downsized and ALL troops from around the world brought home and all wars ended..the drug war and the phony war on terror too..
all we need to concentrate on is defense as we finally protect our borders and stop illegal immigration sending illegals back home and curtail legal immigration for the time being..
the states would NEVER have another fiscal crisis ever again, and a 2011 dollar would be worth the same as a 2050 dollar as private non-federal no-reserve inflation becomes a thing of the past..[good riddance]
NO MORE INFLATION...[INFLATION IS BUT LEGAL THEFT]
this state banking system can be tweaked as needed by each states treasurer and budget comptroller as their job would be to see that the proper amount of currency is injected into each states economies so the new money system runs smoothly and each and every American citizen is cared for to some degree and that especially goes for military veterans.
.. WE THE PEOPLE
TAKE AMERICA BACK FROM THE BANKSTERS FOR GOOD..what a incredibly wonderful world this would be w/o corrupt banksters enslaving America and the world with paper and electronic digits!
please call your states treasurer and governors and demand state banking..
demand we end the fed!
the federal government and most of our corrupt Congress critters in the District of Criminals are useless compromised and paid off bankster puppets..don't waste your time contacting them..
.....lets take America back and become the most envied country in the world again .lets help the rest of the world have enough to eat and a roof over their head and live in peace on earth as the Lord God our creator intended!

Do super tankers go through the Suez Canal, or do they go around Africa?

The ships which go through the Suez Canal do they go to Europe or to America?

These may be good questions

Muslim Brotherhood, Oh, do you mean arms dealer Khashoggi who worked with Mormon Church leader Dallin Oaks and the Mormon Church in building the Triad Center in Salt Lake City, along with his brother Assam Khashoggi and Emanuel Floor. The same Khashoggi who later sold the Florida Airfield to Mormon Bishop Wally Hilliard which trained two of the 9/11 pilots — are you meaning that Muslim Brotherhood in the article?

If these fools are stupid enough to fall for your shabby schizophrenic/delusional wanna theatrics, and you can capitalize off their stupidity by selling poor quality videos for $100+ a pop; more power to you. All the more reason to open up OUR OWN OIL FIELDS. The time is now, open ANWAR in the artic, allow oil companies to drill ON SHORE/OFF SHORE/DEEP WATER. My own state is FULL of OIL, GAS, COAL, ETC... Yet we are not allowed to harvest them because of the federal red tape and excessive state taxes (thanks to Palin). Until we see a shift away from this environmental RELIGION, we will be at the mercy of these middle eastern countries.

Yep,

Now watch silver!

First quarter has it going back up to 31-32 Second quarter should show it around 35

the Third and Fourth quarters are where it gets interesting with silver conservatively going to

Third quarter 41.50
Fourth quarter around $48

these are very conservative with other estimates ranging 80-500 per ounce.

and if not... well thats even better because $25 silver by years end will mean $1000+ a month for groceries. Take your pick, choose your own dark tommorrow but in either scenario its undeniably over folks.

Gear up and Spread out

War is coming.

You need to know what you're doing if you buy metals though.
4 years ago I bought 20,000 worth of gold/silver (when gold was 700 an ounce)
Out of necessity I cashed it in , in December (when gold was around 1200 and ounce) and you know how much I got back ?
20,900.
