I'm a Hoosier. & believe my my blood boiled when i read this last night.I will not obey any unconstitutional law. No one will enter my property without a writ of warrant & my consent.These 3 vile pieces of filth must be impeached immediatley. Too bad only a few of us even know this happened. I'm doing my part to spread the word.Please help us as this will be coming to your state as soon as they see they can get away with it.

This isn't "fascism" as the title suggests, it's just tyranny.

Fascism would include corporate abuse with the force of the state to back them up (like the insurance industry getting the feds to mandate everyone buy health insurance).

I think fascist totalitarian state is the term used to describe where the US is rapidly headed.

Another Jewish judge ruling in favor of tyranny.

Look at the biggest proponents of disarming the Goyim; Schumer, Lautenberg, Bloomberg, Wexler, Wassermen Schultz, Boxer, Feinstein, Waxman, Franken, Weener, Sanders (both) and many others, yet these same people have NO PROBLEMS WITH ISRAELI CITIZENS CARRYING MACHINE GUNS!

This doesn't matter to me since I haven't broken any laws, therefore, anyone trying to break into my home will be considered an extremely dangerous home invader (no matter what he shouts) and will be dealt deadly force.

All you need to know is that the judge is a jew and is trying to protect the unlawful and criminal activities of his fellow jews. Now you understand what Germany faced.

Not just what Germany faced, but the Russian's during the "Bolshevik" (Jewish) revolution.

Jews like Schumer are the biggest cheerleaders for disarming the Goy, feeling them up with the TSA (Lieberman), spying on them with DHS, or eavesdropping on all of us with their lucrative contracts for billing land and cell phones in the US (Amdocs & Verint technologies-Israeli companies)

Never heard of Amdocs & Verint?, take a guess why...

When Mitch Daniels named this judge he claimed that David was "the expression of commitment to proper constraint in jurisprudence and to deep respect for the boundaries of judicial decision making. He will be a judge who interprets rather than invents our laws." Am I missing something here? Why is it that right wing conservative judges who claim to be pro-constitution continue to tear it down? Indiana deserves better.

This sure makes it easy for home invasion robbers and rapists in Indiana. Just show some fake ID, go into the house and help yourself. Hope they hit some judges homes first.

For any people still wondering if we're headed to a full blown police state, the answer is, we're there, at least in Indiana. But don't worry, they'll be coming to your state soon.

If you value your freedom and dignity either leave the US now or prepare to fight for your life.

Boycott Indiana!

If you have travel plans to the Hoosier State, cancel them.

Say, let us pressure the NFL to remove the Super Bowl from Indianapolis.

Remember SB27 was taken away from Phoenix for an insignificant reason: the MLK holiday, or lack of one in Arizona. The NFL twisted Arizona's arm through blackmail.

Let us get the NFL do this again.

THIS TIME for AN EXCELLENT REASON.

Spread his home address to every SNITCH and RAT in Indiana's drug world. Let every "fusion center" know he is a terrorist and enemy agent.

Indeed, if a state or local law opposes the bill of rights or constitution directly, there will certainly be legal issues. It would be logical if one was a Hoosier, to just go ahead and resist any intrusion since it could be anyone, including criminals pretending to be authorities, and let the court sort it out if there were any survivors to try afterwards. After all, if somebody's gonna armed-jackboot-thug-invade your house, what difference does an additional charge of "resisting unlawful home invasion by law enforcement" make? (gee that charge sounds silly, doesn't it?) Hey, I know, let's pass a silly, "no point" unconstitutional local law and see all the constitutionalists and anti-NWO types pop out of the woodwork and complain about it, then we'll have their details so we can persecute 'em! Genius!

The people of Indiana must impeach this "Judge" immediately.

He has no authority to rule against the Bill of Rights.
