"CIA spy" Davis was giving nuclear bomb material to Al-Qaeda, says report

London, Feb 20(ANI): Double murder-accused US official Raymond Davis has been found in possession of top-secret CIA documents, which point to him or the feared American Task Force 373 (TF373) operating in the region, providing Al-Qaeda terrorists with "nuclear fissile material" and "biological agents," according to a report.

Russia's Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) is warning that the situation on the sub-continent has turned "grave" as it appears that open warfare is about to break out between Pakistan and the United States, The European Union Times reports.

The SVR warned in its report that the apprehension of 36-year-old Davis, who shot dead two Pakistani men in Lahore last month, had fuelled this crisis. According to the report, the combat skills exhibited by Davis, along with documentation taken from him after his arrest, prove that he is a member of US' TF373 black operations unit currently operating in the Afghan War Theatre and Pakistan's tribal areas, the paper said. . . .

letter of marque

Submitted by donvino on Wed, 02/23/2011 - 23:27.

A document given to a sailor (privateer) giving him amnesty from piracy laws as long as the ships plunders are of an enemy nation. A large portion of the pirates begin as privateers with this symbol of legitimacy. The earnings of a privateer are significantly better than any of a soldier at sea. Letters of marque aren't always honored, however, even by the government that issues them. Captain Kidd had letters of marque and his own country hanged him anyway.

Hopefully

Submitted by RonzdaMan on Wed, 02/23/2011 - 20:42.

Davis did not succeed in getting the nuclear material into the hands of the CIA assets working the other side of the equation. I have been suspecting that another False Flag is in the works. Hopefully the Pakistani's stopped it. I wonder how the gubberment and the media will handle this. Haven't heard a peep from the media on this...seems like it would be a big scoop for a reporter. Guess not.

Do not lose any sleep over it. Worry about the war raging near Antarctica between the US and the UFO's.

EUT

Submitted by Jive\_Dadson on Wed, 02/23/2011 - 19:00.

The article is so garbled, it is impossible to tell who said what to whom, but it appears the story was initiated by The European Union Times, then picked up by ANI, then Yahoo. The European Union Times reported in December that Wikileaks documents show the US is engaged in a war with UFO's near Antarctica.

Registration for the EU Times' web site (which I think is all there is), is currently hidden behind an anonymity company called "contactprivacy.com." The Southern Poverty Law Center (not our favorite people, I know) reported over a year ago that EU Times was at that time registered to Jessica Nachtman, wife of neo-Nazi skinhead Christopher Nachtman.

There is more than plenty of damning evidence against the CIA. No need to look to sources that are probably making it up. Shame on ANI and Yahoo.

What does seem clear is that the guy is an employee of Xe (Blackwater), and you know what that implies.

Nope, although it sure looks like her (his) style, with the anonymous insider sources paraphrased rather than quoted, and the lack of detail. See my response titled "EUT."
