

Supreme Court Justices Admit Obama Eligibility Is a Problem

Posted on April 20, 2011 | 5 Comments

First, we have Justice Clarence Thomas in a House Appropriations Subcommittee hearing last April admitting that the Supreme Court was evading the many lawsuits that have been brought to the Court on Obama's birth eligibility to be President of the United States [beginning at the 1:00 mark]:

Now, Justice Stephen Breyer in a House Appropriations hearing on the 2012 Supreme Court budget, admits that:

- The Constitution specifies that only a “natural born citizen” can be president of the United States [0:30 mark];
- But the definition of “natural born citizen” has not been determined or fixed, and is subject to interpretation in that different people give the term “a broader or narrower meaning.” [beginning at 1:05 mark]

Enough already with these coy little allusions by Supreme Court justices that they know there's a problem with Obama's eligibility! And stop rubbing our faces in this travesty by joking, laughing, and yukking up about this in Congressional hearings — and with a Democrat Congressman yet.

Rep. Jose Serrano (D-NY) is one of the “most Progressive members of Congress” who, year after year, has introduced and reintroduced a resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to repeal the 22nd Amendment, thereby removing the limitation on the number of terms an individual may serve as president.

Do something about it by agreeing to hear just one of the many lawsuits that have been brought before you. Grow a pair...or, better yet, just do your job, for which you're being handsomely paid by the 55% of American households who actually pay federal income taxes.

5 RESPONSES TO SUPREME COURT JUSTICES ADMIT OBAMA ELIGIBILITY IS A PROBLEM

Progressive/Marxists in this country want total control and are becoming successful and stronger with backing of Union bosses, Communist Party USA, Media Matters, AFL-CIO, SEIU and so many others proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States to repeal the 22nd Amendment, thereby removing the limitation on the number of terms an individual may serve as president. They want someone like Obama, or Obama himself to serve our nation as an absolute monarchy dictatorship in which the ruler, not president, will make up laws and ignore previous laws just because he can. The constitution is viewed by the left as not applicable and fundamentally flawed.

Jim – I think they are still hoping he's the “ONE”, and even if he's not, they will “find the one who can do it;” (Soros, July, 2009) and have that “one” be the permanent dictator —of the world!!!!

Trying so hard to create real differences between the left and right while ignoring Obama's continuation of Bush's worst policies. Get a grip people the left right paradigm is an illusion in your head. Both branches of the big government party serve the same corporate masters.

Be sure to thank a union member for the 40 hour work week, child labor laws, overtime laws, and work place safety rules.

Be sure to Thank a non union member for those crappy Mc Mansions lined with cheap Chinese drywall.

Gosh, you sure have a misguided sense of superiority.

If you've bothered to read the posts on this blog, you'd know you've just made a colossal fool of yourself. We're Conservatives on this blog — in the tradition of the Founding Fathers. I'm a registered non-partisan Independent. I've also posted ad nauseum on the bipartisan political ruling class in this country.

Yes, there's precious little difference between the ELITES of the Right and Left. But that doesn't mean there's no difference in political beliefs and overall philosophy between the Right and the Left. If you think otherwise, then you're the idiot.

You are all correct. However, so long as the electronic voting scam is allowed to flourish you will all continue to be correct. Unplug the machines, extend the time allowed to vote, place the counting in the hands of locals of broad variety and much of what you are correct about will evaporate. If you aren't sent to jail, that is, for attempting to make a change instead of moaning about conditions.
