By Susan Lindauer

June 2nd, 2011

No great civilization is ever destroyed from without, or conquered by external forces, until it first destroys itself from within. America's leaders should have thought long and hard about that before voting to extend the Patriot Act last week.

Unhappily it's official. We the People are the enemy. We have dared to prod and examine government policy too closely.

We have questioned government leadership when we should rightly have obeyed without challenge. Some of us have exposed wrongful government practices and deceptions, expecting to hold Congress and White House leaders accountable to voters. Foolish us!

Last week Congress set the record straight. Breaking campaign promises to defeat the Patriot Act, Congress blocked hearings and debate on amendments that would fix problems in surveillance rules, and rammed a four year extension on the American People. Only 31 Republicans and 122 Democrats voted against the Patriot Act in the House.

IMPORTING GESTAPO LAW

It's no exaggeration, unfortunately, that the Patriot Act is more dangerous to our way of life than any foreign enemy.

Most ominously, entire sections of the Patriot Act are verbatim and identical to two of the most frightening laws in World History:

- The 1929 Bolshevik Communist Criminal Act established Communist control in the age of Joseph Stalin.

It created a security apparatchik unparalleled in its intrusion into the lives of ordinary, non-political families. For enforcement, it created the Gulags, which quickly filled with intellectuals and dissidents, poets and hard luck Russian people who got caught in the wrong place at the wrong time.

It was enough for a neighbor to point a finger secretly for that individual to disappear to the Siberian work camps for life. Secret charges, secret evidence, secret accusations figured prominently— identical to the Patriot Act.

- It's a toss up if that's worse than its commonality with Germany's Enabling Act in 1933. Such comforting words, "the Enabling Act" established the legal framework for Nazi Fascism. The Enabling Law lay the parameters for the Third Reich of Adolph Hitler.

According to history buff, Alan Batterman, the German word for "Gestapo" is an acronym of GEheim STAdt POlezi.

Translation: "Homeland Security."

Unhappily, for free thinking Americans, Batterman's analysis is correct. Paragraph for paragraph, clause for clause, laws establishing fascist control over the Soviet Union and Nazi Germany are replicated in the Patriot Act today.

Like the iron fist of the Nazis and Communists, Americans must submit to "roving surveillance" and warrantless searches, without the requirement of a Judge's authorization. Surveillance laws are part of a larger arsenal of weapons against political dissidents and whistle blowers.

Most Americans don't know the Patriot Act authorizes secret charges relying on secret evidence and secret grand jury statements. Under the Patriot Act, Americans have no right to know who has accused them of what criminal activities, or the dates of the alleged offense.

They're not even told what law was broken. The government has power to lock up Americans on military bases or other prisons without a hearing or trial. We can be detained indefinitely without any rights of due process at all.

Perhaps it's fitting, therefore, that Nazi Leader, Herman Goering, should explain the New America to us, as we tread into this new age so dangerous to freedom:

"Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy enough. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country."

Powerful words of warning, indeed.

Think it won't come to that? It won't happen? It already has.

That's what they did to me—not because I plotted some terrorist conspiracy, but because I opposed the Iraqi War. And my knowledge of the truth posed a grave threat to their lies—about Iraq, 9/11, anti-terrorism overall.

Congress made up a story about the boogey man. And Congress likes that story. They think it gets them votes. (Perhaps they're right.)

Legalizing Government Deception

Come to discover the Patriot Act has proven most valuable for legalizing government deceptions. When the government desires to hide from the people, the Patriot Act provides a framework for arresting those who know too much of the truth, and might expose government fraud and corruption. Leaders are thus protected from the consequences of their decision-making.

That's what motivated the attack against me. In January, 2003, I took two actions that would perplex the Courts for five years, through two Presidential elections. First, in a warm hearted letter, I warned White House Chief of Staff Andrew Card, my second cousin, that War in Iraq would result in a catastrophic Occupation.

Secondly, a week before his big speech at the United Nations, I told Secretary of State Colin Powell that, as the Asset who handled preliminary talks on resuming the weapons inspections with senior Iraqi diplomats, I considered it most unlikely that Iraq possessed WMDs.

Worst of all, I told Secretary Powell that a comprehensive peace framework with Iraq, hammered out by the CIA, could accomplish all U.S. objectives, including democratic reforms, without sacrificing the life of a single American soldier or Iraqi child.

That was enough to make me Public Enemy Number One.

Think about it. What if the American people had learned that every goal could have been achieved in Iraq without sacrifice? A lot of White House officials and members of Congress (in both parties) would be out of a job.

Ah, now you see, those are the Americans who count under the Patriot Act! The law exists to protect the access of the elite. My arrest coincided with a White House decision to blame the unpopular war on "incompetent" Intelligence Assets. Congress liked that story.

They liked it very much. It kept them employed. And so I got arrested, accused of “incompetence” myself, and thrown in prison for a year, while the Justice Department argued for the right to detain me indefinitely.

Mercifully, Judge Michael Mukasey refused. But for one horrified Judge I would still be locked in prison on Carswell Air Force Base.

During the five years of my indictment, Congress complained bitterly that Assets like myself had not come forward to correct mistakes in the assumptions of their war planning. Both Party leaderships scorned the Intelligence Community.

They actively deceived Americans and the International Community. But so long as I was tied up on the Patriot Act, they were free to invent any story they wanted. That’s exactly what they did.

Enemies of Freedom

The enemies of freedom won this round. They beat us.. But Americans must understand that we cannot give up this fight to stop the Patriot Act. It cannot be over.

Yes, it’s Nazi Germany in the 1930s. They’re getting everything in place — They’re testing the waters with a few scattered arrests of activists and troublesome truth tellers here and there. Nobody has really protested, right? So far so good. It’s all in the open for anybody paying attention, but if you complain, they say you’re paranoid.

The fight is on! Congress might hope this is over, and we’ll “get over it.” But the threat to our freedom is so extreme that we must now wake out of our drifting slumber, or we will stay comatose through the end of the American Century. T

These Tea Partiers promised to defend freedom. They championed the Constitution when it was politically convenient, and abandoned the Constitution when they no longer needed public support to get elected.

Enough of us are vigilant that we can stop them— even now.

Really, this is a fight that we cannot lose. What Congress has forgot, we must remember. No great civilization is destroyed by external forces, until it first destroys itself.

I see this kind of comment alot. Facebook doesn't allow a grain of truth. They've got people in la-la land over there (I had to get away from it) and that's the way they like it. (for some reason "Pleasantville" comes to mind, altho' I never saw the movie)
Sad but true.

It's called subtle censorship – they've been honing these skills since Bernays (Propaganda) and Rawlings-Reece (Tavistock Institute)

You can always tell when things go light and fluffy in a very gritty world. Induced cognitive dissonance and ignorance are the mildest of their weapons.

Stick it to them, Susan.

I am sorry Ewar, and everyone in Facebook for that matter ... but if you expect to be free and continue under the slavery of Facebook let me tell you ... you don't know a thing.

For all that try to see double intention in my comment let me clarify, it is not a personal attack, just that Facebook is all about the very same things you are fighting against.

I've been fighting them for more than 30 years, two months ago I got the NSL's served on my banking, and that was seized, and an e-mail account shut down by them.

so it's begun. the gloves came off.

this is the time for us to fight, not wait till they start to fill up the FEMA camps. Time for all true believers in freedom from tyranny to stand up, and not ever back down, not blink, and not cower in fear of them.

this is the battle for the rights of all free people, wherever they may be.

Thanks for the free speech opp.

I wish my fellow americans could pay attention as much as they wave the flags on memorial day.I need to repost this great american's quotation over and over ,because it is the ONLY truth spoken by this scumbag and his bosses.

“We are an Empire now, and when we act, we create our own reality. And while you are studying that reality – judiciously as you will – we will act again, creating other new realities, which you can study too, and that's how things will sort out. We are history's actors...and you, all of you, will be left to just study what we do.” Carl Rove

This article states “Gestapo” is an acronym of GEheim STAdt POlezi and translates it as “Homeland Security”. Checking a German to English dictionary, geheim means “secret”, stadt means urban or municipal, Polezi has no translation (gibberish). It's actually an abbreviation of Geheime Staatspolizei, “Secret State Police”. If this simple translation is inaccurate, I'm questioning the other assertions in the article. However, this does not mean that the PATRIOT Act is not dangerous. Better, more accurate research is vital to overcoming this sort of thing.

Everyone, but you apparently, new that it was not a literal translation. In the essence and the meaning it is the same thing Secret Police = Homeland Security. got it?

Our politicians told us that terrorist hates us for our freedom! Now, the politicians are taking away our freedom embedded in our constitution. Now that the terrorist have no longer any reason to hate us, let us disband the TSA, CIA, NASA, NSC, standing armies and military forces, save bundle in cost and provide food, shelter, clothing, health, education, and worthwhile jobs to our people that are far more profitable and a whole lot cheaper.
