On the eve of 2012, President Obama has, with the stroke of a pen, ended America as we know it.

With the National Defense Authorization Act now signed into law, American citizens can and possibly will be indefinitely detained by the military if they have been “accused” of any terrorist related activity.

In a press release published today, the ACLU further outlined their opposition to this unconstitutional law and highlighted the fact that Obama will now be known as the president who signed indefinite detention of Americans, far from any battlefield, into law.

“President Obama’s action today is a blight on his legacy because he will forever be known as the president who signed indefinite detention without charge or trial into law,” said Anthony D. Romero, ACLU executive director.

“The statute is particularly dangerous because it has no temporal or geographic limitations, and can be used by this and future presidents to militarily detain people captured far from any battlefield. The ACLU will fight worldwide detention authority wherever we can, be it in court, in Congress, or internationally.”

“We are incredibly disappointed that President Obama signed this new law even though his administration had already claimed overly broad detention authority in court,” said Romero. “Any hope that the Obama administration would roll back the constitutional excesses of George Bush in the war on terror was extinguished today.

Although the president and the corporate controlled media have tried to pretend that he only signed the bill because Congress took out the indefinite detention provision, the fact remains that this bill DOES give the government the ability to detain any American they claim to be a terrorist without so much as a trial.

Obama’s claim that he had reservations about certain provisions also rings hollow considering the fact that the White House actually asked for the indefinite detention provision to be added to the bill in the first place!

As we all celebrate the new year we must reflect back on 2011 and realize that it is absolutely imperative that we speak out and expose these police state measures like never before.

If we do not, this country will continue on its path towards destruction and before the end of 2012 we could find ourselves in a full scale police state that has completely outlawed the alternative media and free, outside the box thinking.

Do any of the Obamabots still believe Obama doesn't work for the banksters just like the Bushes? Rational people take note. The faith of Marxists and Christians has no connection to rationality. Beware of those who's mind is made up in spite of any objective reality. Of paradise is also made the worst of hells.

Rubbish. Obama is programmed to go along with his handlers. A perpetuation of the central bank at all costs. Freemasons and Skull and Bones provide the continuity here in America. Race war is the game. See the CFRtv bull lead the sheeple into permanent servitude BACK under the aegis of Britannia.

There are literally tears in my eyes! I knew he'd wait until the end of today! Every move has a timed purpose! This is the single most tragic mistake ever made by an American President! I just lost any shred of respect I once had for him! This is TREASON on the Constitutional Republic! So what do we do now?! Eat black eyed peas and corn bread tomorrow and hope for a better 2012?!?

My house visitor just now said, "Why worry about things you can't do anything about, just accept it!" Big mistake! We had a Festive conversation..then she left, lol.poor thing she's only in her 20's so she doesn't see it yet. I on the other hand am ready to FIGHT! I'm ready to stand at the White House and let my voice be heard, how about you?! I mentioned to Alex Jones that we should have a "Terrorist March" on the US Capital since all of us who question the Governments actions are now considered "Terrorists", so let's show up, Terrorists on the white house lawn and ask them what they're going to do then. It would make a powerful point I think!

Yea, the line separating DHS/FEMA and the DoD has all but disappeared now. The 'Civilian Labor Inmate Program' may now be a reality, as well as some civilian labor inmates could be transferred overseas. What is to stop FEMA from transferring custody of prisoners/detainees over to the military? And we know who DHS/FEMA considers a 'terrorist'. And, what's to stop the military from bringing in prisoners/detainees from overseas to camps here in the U.S.?
