Mitt Romney's Ties to Israeli Military Intelligence

Updated January 13, 2012

I sort of have to chuckle when they describe you as being dangerous. We are dangerous to the state in this country.

– Ron Paul after his second-place finish in New Hampshire primary, 10 January 2012

I want to say one other challenge that we face is that we must find an alternative to war and blood: Anyone who feels, and there are still a lot of people feel that way, that war can solve the social problems facing mankind is sleeping through a great revolution. President Kennedy said on one occasion, "Mankind put an end to war or war will put an end to mankind. The world must hear this. I pray God that America will do this before it is too late, because today we're fighting war."

– Martin Luther King, Jr., "Remaining Awake Through a Great Revolution", 31 March 1968, National Cathedral, Washington, D.C.

AMERICA'S 21-YEAR-OLD WAR

Monday, 16 January 2012, is Martin Luther King Day. The same day will also mark the passage of 21 years since the United States military began fighting in the Middle East. The U.S. has been actively engaged in war fighting in Iraq and the Middle East for a full 21 years, which is to say that Americans who will become adults in 2012 have never known what it means to live in a nation at peace.

Ron Paul, the anti-war Republican candidate for president, is a threat to the status quo of open-ended military intervention in the Middle East. While some 70 percent of the American population wants an immediate end to the U.S.-led wars, Paul is the only candidate that speaks for the majority that wants peace.

Barack Obama has ratcheted up the war in Afghanistan and imposed sanctions on Iran that will lead to war if not reversed. All of the Republican candidates other than Ron Paul are out to outdo each other with their bellicose threats against Iran. I understand why the candidates advocate such belligerent positions in spite of the growing anti-war sentiment among American voters, it is essential to understand that they are being paid and supported to do so by their Zionist (i.e. Jewish) Israel) backers. Mitt Romney, for example, has very close ties to a high-level agent from Israeli military intelligence, the very same man he made CEO of Bain & Company.

ROMNEY'S ISRAELI HANDLER – Orit Gadiesh, former "Washington" assistant to Ezer Weizman and Moshe Dayan, is the daughter of Israeli Brigadier General Falk Gadiesh (born Falk Gruenfeld, Berlin, 1921) and his Ukrainian-born wife. Orit is chairman of the management consulting firm Bain Company, the parent company of Bain Capital, and was previously the company's managing director under CEO Mitt Romney in Bain Capital owns Clear Channel, the largest radio station owner in the United States. Clear Channel owns ten radio networks which air the most popular radio talk shows, including The Rush Limbaugh Show, The Glenn Beck Program, The Hannity Show, America Now with Andy Dean, Coast to Coast AM, The Savage Nation, The Mark Levin Show, and The Ramsey Show. (Graphic: "Rush Limbaugh Spills the Beans on the Jewish Conspiracy" by Pat Healy)

Mitt Romney was a co-founder of Bain Capital along with Orit Gadiesh. Bain was ousted in 1991 and Romney served as CEO of Bain & Company in 1991–1992. In May 1991

Romney was CEO, Gadiesh was named chairman of the company's Policy Committee, which set the company's strategy and policy. In 1992, under Romney, she became managing director. Orit Gadiesh, who has worked at Bain since 1977, became chairman of Bain & Co. in 1999

Orit Gadiesh, born in Israel in 1951, has worked closely with Mitt Romney since at least 1991, and probably much longer since she joined Bain & Company in 1977, when she was 26. Romney appointed Gadiesh to his transition team when he became governor of Massachusetts in November 2003. Gadiesh is the daughter of Falk Gadiesh, an Israeli brigadier general and former member of the general staff who reorganized the Israeli army in the early 1950s after returning from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

Falk's daughter Orit was chosen to serve in Israeli military intelligence. Her first position in the Israeli military was as assistant to Ezer Weizman, the deputy chief of staff who later became president of Israel. During the early 1970s she worked in the war room, a bunker where Gen. Moshe Dayan was in charge. As a war room assistant to Weizman, Orit provided military leaders with documents and correspondence.

Prior to joining Bain & Company, Gadiesh served in the capacity of the Deputy Chief of Staff of the Israeli Army. Currently, she is on the board of directors of the Peres Center for Peace, an organization headed by a former chief of staff of the Israeli military, Lt. General Amnon Lipkin-Shahak. The high level Mossadnik Avner Azulay, managing director of the Peres Center, is also on the executive board of the Peres Center.

Mitt Romney speaking at the Mossad's (IDC) Herzliya Conference in 2007

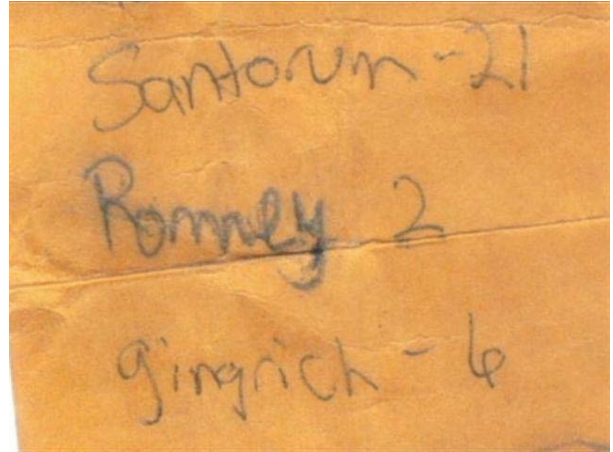

Romney greets his old friend, Benjamin Netanyahu, one of the suspected architects of the false-flag terrorism of 9/11

Mitt Romney attended the Mossad's "Herzliya Conference on Israeli Security" in 2007. Romney and the current Israeli prime minister Benjamin Netanyahu worked together as consultants at the Boston Consulting Group early in their careers.

Romney's close relationship with Orit Gadiesh and Israel's military intelligence is the real reason he is the chosen candidate of the Zionist establishment. Romney is being supported by high-level Zionists, Israeli military intelligence, and their controlled media network. This relationship between the Israeli military and Mitt Romney, a presidential candidate, should be of great concern to all Americans because this is how the Israeli military plans to pull the United States into a war with Iran.

WHO REALLY WON IN IOWA?

There are alarming news reports that show that the tally Republican caucus in Iowa was manipulated giving fraud additional votes to Mitt Romney. In one precinct alone, Romney received only two votes, the tally showed twenty an increase of 1,000 percent! If such egregious vote fraud happened in one precinct, it most likely happened others:

Des Moines TV station KCCI reported that a Ron P backer attending his first precinct caucuses in App County, in southern Iowa, said the vote from his p was inaccurately reported and gave Romney 20 m votes than he actually received.

The Paul supporter, Edward True of Moulton, told Associated Press that he helped count the ballots his precinct caucuses and that Romney received tw

 on the Republican Party website showed Romney votes in the precinct.

"I assume somebody made a typographical error," in a telephone interview. True said that when he

IMMEDIATE AUDIT OF IOWA RESULTS REQUIRED

Edward True, 28, said at his 53-person caucus at the Ga Memorial Library, Romney received only two votes. According to the Iowa Republican Party's website, True's precinct cast 53 votes for Romney. "This is huge," True said. "It essentially changes who won." While the mainstream media portrays this as a single typographical error it may be an indication of a serious case of vote fraud. Edward True's discovery is clear evidence of vote fraud and a complete audit of the Iowa caucus must be done to determine if the caucus results were manipulated on a statewide scale.

When I began this article about Ron Paul and the Iowa caucus, a week before it happened, I was strongly inclined to predict that Mitt Romney was going to win, based solely on my knowledge that he is supported financially by the Crown family of Chicago, a family of high-level Zionist weapons dealers closely tied to the state of Israel. The Crown family, which profits directly from war and defense spending, also supports Barack Obama and is one of those highly-connected Zionist clans that knows how to make their candidates win elections one way or another. Lester Crown also sits on the board of the Peres Center, along with Orit Gadiesh and other high-level Mossadniks.

Orit Gadiesh, born 1951, is the daughter of Falk Gac (formerly Gruenfeld) one of the Israeli army's first brig generals and a member of the General Staff. The Gru family immigrated to Palestine in 1939 when Falk was became a Brigadier and was sent by Israeli military intelligence to the United States in 1952 (see names on U.S. passenger manifest) on a diplomatic passport to MIT. He then returned to Israel and reorganized the army.

Romney's support from the Crown family, which is close to the state of Israel and its military intelligence agencies most likely based on his decades of working with Bain & Company, which is headed by Orit Gadiesh, an Israeli military intelligence agent. Romney and Gadiesh have worked together at Bain since the early 1990s. Gadiesh is the Israeli intelligence agent who steers Bain & Co., and who probably advises Mitt Romney on the Middle East and other matters. She served on Romney's transition team when he became governor of Massachusetts.

The following extracts provide some basic information on Israeli agent who controls Mitt Romney:

Founded in 1973 by former Boston Consulting Group president William H. Bain, Jr., Bain & Co., based in Boston, has offices in Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Los Angeles, New York, Palo Alto and San Francisco. After experiencing a serious crisis in the 1980s and 1990s, Bain rebounded under the leadership of former Massachusetts governor Mitt Romney (who had previously worked with Bain Capital, a separate company) and Orit Gadiesh, one of the few women to head a top consulting firm. It had revenues of $1.6 billion and over 4,000 employees in 2007.

She stands over 6 feet tall in heels. She worked in intelligence in her native Israel. And she runs one of the world's largest, most elite business-consulting firms with big-hitter clients like De Beers, ITT, and Dell. A few years ago, Gadiesh succeeded Mitt Romney as head of what was once called the KGB of consulting firms. Because of her connections to the governor, it was no surprise he named her to his transition team. Gadiesh was only one of two Bostonians listed on the last time Fortune magazine published its female power list in 2000.

A Romney victory in Iowa, I wrote, would have certainly resulted if the Republicans were to use the same dodgy tally system (Voxeo, a firm tied to Israeli military intelligence which had been used by the Democrats of Iowa in the two previous elections). I have written extensively about how the Israeli-linked Voxeo system was used to manipulate the tallies of the Iowa Democrat caucuses of 2004 and 2008. Rigging of the Iowa caucus allows for the presidential election to be stolen at the beginning – like a baby from its crib. It appears very likely that the Republican caucus of 2012 was manipulated and stolen. The national importance of the caucus means that we have a right to demand an independent audit of the results. The evidence indicates that the Republican Party of Iowa is not able to provide verifiable results in a transparent manner. We should not have to wait two weeks to have results from such a simple, but important poll.

One week before the caucus I contacted the Republican Party of Iowa and spoke with three different people in their communications department about how the results be tallied. Patrick, the first person I spoke to about the counting process, told me that he could not reveal how it would be done "for security purposes." Ryan, the second person, told me that the precincts would communicate the results to caucus headquarters in Des Moines but the way in which the precinct results were to be sent was being kept secret for security purposes.

Finally, I spoke to Nicole Sizemore, the assistant director of communications. Sizemore told me that there was no outside agency involved in the tally process and that it was "very transparent" with oversight by observers from the different campaigns. The complete tally with "total break down by precinct, she said, would be released within 14 days of the January 3 caucus. I was glad to hear this and decided not to come out with a gloomy prediction that Mitt Romney would win. With the information I had from the Republican Party in Iowa it seemed that there was a good chance for a honest and transparent caucus. It now seems that my trust was misplaced and that my instinct that vote fraud would give Romney victory in Iowa was correct after all.

If the statement of Edward True is true and correct, the numbers for Mitt Romney were manipulated. If vote fraud happened in True's precinct, it probably happened in others all across the state. The tally from the Iowa caucus must be examined to see if the statewide results match precinct results for each of the 1,774 precincts. Now that the Iowa caucus is over, the method by which the results were communicated to caucus HQ needs to be exposed and examined because, just like the Voxeo telephonic vote-counting system, this appears to have been the weak link through which the results were manipulated giving Mitt his victory in Iowa.

To those who believe that America has a "free press", imho, and unbiased, just watch the following short video in which CNN blatantly censored the comments of Corporal Jesse Thorsen, a U.S. Army soldier from West Des Moines who served multiple tours in Iraq and Afghanistan – and who supports Ron Paul because he is tired of war and would have some "peace time" duty:

The ongoing cover-up of 9/11, the fraudulent "War on Terror", and the trillion-dollar U.S. military intervention in the Middle East are the key elements coloring the political context of the U.S. presidential election of 2012. The fraudulent attacks of 9/11 and the U.S. military aggression in the Middle East are two sides of the same counterfeit coin which has been used for the past decade to deceive and defraud American people – and the world. The massive fraud that began with 9/11 and which has been used to rob the nation of untold billions could not possibly be maintained were it not for the utterly corrupt political establishment of Washington, D.C. and the controlled media. This ongoing deception is the real background against which the Iowa caucus, the first poll of the 2012 presidential election, needs to be viewed.

The Republican caucus in Iowa on January 3 is of great importance because it is the first poll to determine which candidate will challenge Barack Obama for the presidency. A CNN/Time poll indicates that Ron Paul and Mitt Romney are currently the front runners polling about 25 percent each. Days earlier Ron Paul was the clear front runner, several points ahead of Romney and Newt Gingrich, who has now fallen further behind. Despite Paul's common sense positions and popularity with voters, the paid pundits of the controlled media outlets constantly attack his positions as "out of the mainstream".

Paul, who is a very popular candidate, is treated most unfairly by so-called alternative media outlets such as Salon and Huffington Post. When one reads, for example, the first sentence of the Bob Cesca piece on the Huffington Post he says progressives that support Ron Paul are "out of the blessed gourds", it is worth remembering that the Huffington Post was acquired by AOL in February 2011 for $315 million. There is always a political reason for such media acquisitions and the Ron Paul candidacy is that reason. This is a perfect example of how, and why, the so-called alternative media is controlled by the same sinister forces that control the "mainstream" press. What better way is there to control the thoughts of progressive voters than to control the websites they rely on for information?

Ron Paul is opposed to waging war against Iran.

I am just absolutely convinced that the best formula for giving us peace and preserving the American way is freedom, limited government, and minding our own business overseas.

– Ron Paul

A CNN/ORC poll released in November found that 65 percent of Americans opposed the war in Iraq and 75 percent are against the one in Afghanistan. Yet, when hearing that only hawks have a chance to be elected president... Dr. Ron Paul is firmly anti-war, anti-terror, and anti-torture. He has been drawing large crowds in Iowa. He has legions of volunteers and a steady stream of money through Internet fundraising. His supporters are willing, as one said, to "crawl over broken glass" to support him. So if there is snow in Iowa or New Hampshire should be no problem.

– Ron Paul, the anti-war candidate” by Mary Meeh
Baltimore Sun, 2 January 2012
<http://www.baltimoresun.com/news/opinion/op-ed-antiwar-20120102,0,6340945.story>

One of the key issues, perhaps the most crucial issue, in GOP Iowa caucus is the position of the candidates regarding Zionist war policy against Iran. Ron Paul is opposed to war against Iran while Romney and most of the others are armchair warriors against the Islamic Republic of Iran. The new U.S. sanctions seeking to strangle Iran financially have brought counter threats to close the Strait of Hormuz, the position vis-a-vis Iran is now of the utmost importance and the chances of war are greater than ever.

Iran has been the subject of a Zionist war strategy for years the same way that organized Jewry declared war on Germany in the early 1930s, long before the invasion of Poland in 1939. The punitive sanctions against Iran are war by other means and unless the United States changes its approach to Iran it will find itself in another major war in the Middle East, one with drastic and unforeseeable consequences.

Henry, Lester, and Susan Crown of Chicago. A family of war profiteers, the Crowns became rich on U.S. defense spending in World War II and have profited on every war since. The Crowns are big financial supporters of Republican Mitt Romney and the Democrat Barack Obama – both Zionist controlled pro-war candidates.

The Crown family of Chicago is one of the key Zionist supporters of Barack Obama and Mitt Romney. As a major shareholder of General Dynamics, the Crown family profits from U.S. defense spending and war. As a leading Zionist family, the Crowns support sanctions and the Israeli warmongering

Iran. The Crowns have invested in Mitt Romney because willing to wage war to please his Zionist supporters. To the nation into war to serve a foreign state is treasonous:

Mitt Romney is hawkish on Iran because he is supported by Zionist warmongers like the Crown family of Chicago.

Mitt Romney would most likely win the caucus if the Republican Party of Iowa were to tally the caucus results using the dodgy telephonic tally system (Voxeo) used by the Iowa Democrats in 2004 and 2008. But after having inquired the Republican Party of Iowa about how the results would be tallied it seems to me that the Republican Party of Iowa would be tallying the results themselves in Des Moines.

Nicole Sizemore, assistant communications director for the Republican Party of Iowa, told Bollyn.com that there is no outside contractor involved in the tally and that it will be a "very transparent process with multiple observers. Although Sizemore could not provide the specifics about how the results would be communicated to the party headquarters, she confirmed that a complete breakdown of 1,774 precinct results would be published within 14 days. These are the key elements of an open and transparent caucus poll.

This is good news because it suggests that the results of the January 3 Republican caucus are likely to be more representative, honest, and accurate than the Democratic caucus in 2008 that helped bring the dark horse candidate Barack Obama to power. In 2004 another dark horse candidate, John Kerry, came from behind to run against W. Bush. In both cases, pro-war candidates from the back of the pack won the rigged caucus, effectively removing the question of the illegal war policy from the debate. Let's hope Ron Paul wins Iowa in a truly honest and transparent caucus on January 3. We certainly don't need anymore illegal Zionist for profit and the people of Iowa know that as well as an Iowa has lost 69 servicemen in the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq with more than 477 wounded, according to iCasualty

In the following video clips from a Republican debate Ron Paul explains his position on Iran. Rick Santorum recently stated that he would bomb Iran's nuclear facilities if elected president. Iran is the central foreign policy question facing the presidential candidates. The U.S. has been at war in the Middle East for years, since January 1991, when President George H.W. Bush went to war against Iraq over Kuwait.

He wrote his first essay questioning the events of 9/11 on September 18th, 2001, just one week after the attack. – A. Scott Piraino, "Q & A with Christopher Bollyn" ThePopulist.net, 11 September 2011

I am always amazed at the details you manage to uncover, for your articles; they really are some of the best-researched on the Internet.

How can it be that an American journalist is brutally attacked by undercover police at his home – in front of his 8-year-old daughter and wife, TASERed while restrained in handcuffs and unable to move, a 200-pound man kneeling on the temple of his head and another on his back, and has his arm broken? Not a single newspaper, television station, or journalistic organization is concerned? This was just the beginning of the price I have paid for my writing about 9/11. – Christopher Bollyn, "Israel Did 9/11' – U.S. Military Expert Supports Bollyn Thesis", 3 April 2010

I visited Andreas von Bülow, author of a best-selling book (200,000 copies sold) about the CIA and 9/11, at his home in Bonn in August 2011. Von Bülow, a former parliamentarian who oversaw operations of German intelligence, was the first political/intelligence expert I interviewed in November 2001 regarding 9/11.

Andreas von Bülow saw the devastation of Dresden as a child. His house was the last house on the edge of total destruction.

Spiegel magazine, which Andreas told me is very hostile to his work and engages in a campaign of defamation against him, published a piece in English about him for the 10th anniversary of 9/11. It is "Questioning 9/11 – The Politician Turned Conspiracy Theorist".

Your work is my favorite, most reliable news source. I regularly challenge newspaper salesmen, students, friends to read it and decide for themselves. Good job! (Australian expression).

What are you proud of? I am proud of my support for Christopher Bollyn. Why?

Mr. Bollyn is the type of person we should all strive to be. An investigative journalist, his moral standards, work ethic and personal integrity will not be compromised. His research and writing on 9/11 is a gift to all of us who love freedom and love the truth.

Our government, media, and our culture itself has become so infested with lies and liars that most of us are hard pressed to maintain any awareness of reality. Christopher Bollyn gives us a chance to see clearly what has happened to America – information we can use to reformulate our world view and guide our thinking and attempt to cope.

I beg everyone to turn off your TV sets and take some time to study the writings of Mr. Bollyn, sharing his message with others as you see fit.

Thank You

"EXACTLY THE TRUTH AS WRITTEN"

Some readers send comments. I received an interesting comment from an Israeli reader who said that "conspiracy story" is "exactly the truth as written."

I liked your article, it is a nice conspiracy story, because it was exactly the truth as written. Nice to remember those old-times, when we did foolish mistakes... I certainly paid for my mistakes, but I :

criminal, just another unlucky Israeli.

Dear Mr. Bollyn:

Whether the events of 9/11 are as you suspect a massive operation or not, the population under the current government, will in all likelihood never know. After the truth regarding the assassinations of Gaius Julius Caesar and Abraham Lincoln are still being debated even when after many generations hidden truths are discovered as in the 1915 sinking of the RMS Lusitania and the 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor, the general population remembers only the "official version".

all the smoke and mirrors of disinformation one thing however remains clear and that is the pernicious influence of the Zionists in the shaping of American policies, both foreign and domestic. Your lonely and courageous willingness to openly question these influences that have done so much to shape policy at least since 1919 is a heroic effort which I therefore heartily applaud.

My research and analysis of 9-11 is very different from what you will find anywhere in the controlled mainstream media or alternative press. My 9-11 material will not be discussed in the 9-11 conferences or media coverage in the coming years not because it is incorrect or biased in any way. The only reason my 9-11 writings are not discussed in the media is because they get much too close to the truth, which is something nobody in the media wants to go anywhere near.

The American people are woefully deceived about what happened on 9-11 and have become enslaved to lies, wondering why U.S. troops are killing and being killed in Afghanistan and Iraq. The population of the United States is burdened by deception primarily because most Americans blindly trust the cherished notion that they have a "free press". Trusting what they hear on television, Americans are terribly misinformed by the deception of the controlled media and press.

The American troops in Afghanistan are not waging war to protect the United States or to defend any American ideal.

are killing and dying in an evil war of conquest in a place Americans had never been prior to October 2001. Very few Americans understand why U.S. men and women are fighting in Afghanistan. It has nothing to do with 9-11 and everything to do with constructing a gas pipeline to carry Israeli-owned oil to India and China.

An American soldier in Afghanistan fighting for the Zionist agenda and its state founded on terrorism.

The controlled media is lying through its teeth to the American people just like the C.I.A., the F.B.I., and the so-called "experts" members of Congress and the U.S. government. Any political agency who is party to deceiving the American people is not on their side. These liars are the domestic enemies of the American republic. To deceive the people into sending their sons, husbands, fathers, and daughters to fight wars of aggression is criminal and treasonous.

My mission is to simply expose the deception in order to protect the American people the information they need to protect themselves and their families. I need your help to do this. Please, contribute to Bollyn.com. Thank you.

I saw your article on 9-11 in the Tehran Times yesterday and was very impressed with your research. I had read about the Israel connection some time ago but after reading your article I put everything into perspective... [Noam] Chomsky and others have been writing about Israel for many years, but they are unwilling to really get to the heart of their activities like we have.

"You are providing a unique and needed perspective on events."

The European press is much more honest than the Zionist controlled press in the United States about Israel an egregious act of piracy on May 31, 2010. Such critical perspectives and information about Israeli state terrorism not found in the U.S. media.

Badness always manifests in destruction and corruption while goodness always manifests in preservation and benefit.

My research and writings are available on this website through the contributions of concerned citizens who donate to my work. Thousands of people visit my website, read, copy and repost my material. My recent article "How Ehud Barak Fought Off 9-11", for example, is currently found on thousands of websites -- but very few readers contribute.

The information and original articles found on my website are the result of years of research. You won't find such accurate and detailed information (and analysis) anywhere else, like all in the controlled press of the United States. A recent editorial by veteran American journalist Alex Beam (New York Times and Boston Globe) explains that the controlled press in the U.S. has a long history of publishing stories that are nothing but lies:

In Luce's day, a cadre of gorgeous, brilliant women at the Seven Sisters colleges backstopped this media rendering plant as fact-checkers. In the late 1970s half the fact-checkers were men, so in addition to pouring vodka I checked facts, a process that left bleakly cynical about journalistic accuracy. We would not publish whole stories that were lies — Francois Mitterrand's plan to destroy the French economy is a recurring theme — but at least the names were spelled correctly.

Bollyn and Professor Steven Jones examine the evidence of Thermite in the destruction of the World Trade Center towers in the spring of 2006. Jones subsequently found large amounts of super-Thermite in the dust of the pulverized Twin Towers, proving that the WTC had been exploded using an extremely advanced nano-composite of Thermite. This evidence proves that neither Osama Bin Laden nor the government had anything to do with the pre-planned demolition of the three towers on 9-11. The government explanations for the cause of the three collapses are nothing but fabrications and lies.
